Eisenhower To Rule Liberated Europe Except France; Reds In Part Of Reich

By WES GALLAGHER

London, April 14 (AP)—Defeated Germany will be governed by a joint American-British-Russian "Allied military government with teeth in it," a reliabl esource in close touch with Allied armistice proposals declared today.

And, he added, Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower as supreme commander of the Allied western front forces will be given the greatest authority in history, even greater than that exercised by old Roman generals. Besides commanding all Allied land, sea and air forces, he will exercise direct and indirect control over the civilian life of most of liberated Europe.

De Gaulle In France

The plan for Germany was disclosed in broad outline after it was learned last night that no Allied military government was intended for France. Instead Gen. Charles de Gaulle's Committee of National Liberation is to be given control of the civil administration of liberated France, receiving "military recognition" as the official authority but not being granted diplomatic recognition as the French "government."

Details of the tri-power administration of Germany are being worked out by the European advisory commission in conjunction with military chiefs, an informant said, giving thsi picture of Allied plans:

Reds In Germany

For some time after the armistice, as well as before Eisenhower as chief of the military government forces will have direct control over all parts of Germany occupied by the Americans and British, or other Allied trops except the Russians.

A Soviet military government will control German territory occupied by the Red Army.

He will be the man through whom the French, Dutch, Norwegians, Belgians and other Allied governments must deal until normal peacetime diplomatic and trade channels can be resumed.

The entire economic life of Europe will be under his control, since shipping and transport will be supervised by the military for a considerable period after the war ends.

People To Decide

This does not mean the Allies plan any AMG's or military governments for liberated countries. All nations except Germany and her satellites who stay with her to the end will be allowed to choose their own governments.

There is no question of self-government for Germany immediately after the war, it was stressed.

"There has been no indication that any counter-Nazi movement is growing in Germany which might seize power, such as displaced the Kaiser in the last war," one high officer explained, "so we must be prepared for a completely disorganized and decentralized Germany."

Secretary Of Highways To Speak Here

John U. Shroyer, secretary of the Pennsylvania Department of Highways, will come to Gettysburg Wednesday evening, April 26, to address a dinner meeting of the Gettysburg Chamber of Commerce, Mares Sherman, president of the Chamber, announced today.

The dinner had originally been scheduled for Tuesday evening, April 25, but was postponed to April 26 because of the primary day elections.

"We were very anxious to have Mr. Shroyer come to Gettysburg to talk to us about highways," President Sherman said. "Our intense interest in a good state highway program was an added emphasis to attract Mr. Shroyer here and he announced that it would be a pleasure for him to come here for our dinner meeting.

Open to Public

"We are anticipating a large attendance and every merchant, garage proprietor, service station operation, souvenir stand owner and all others who depend in a measure on tourist traffic for a portion of their business should not fail to attend the meeting.

"Everyone in Gettysburg is vitally interested in good roads, especially in the modernization of the Lincoln highway and we feel that Mr. Shroyer will bring an important message to us."

A special Chamber of Commerce committee will handle the arrangements for the dinner. It will be open to the public and members of the Chamber, as well as non-members, will be urged to bring their wives and as many other guests as possible.

Reservations for the dinner will be received at the Chamber of Commerce offices in the Kadel building, Center square.

President Sherman said that he will extend a special invitation to county merchants and others in the rural areas interested in good roads to attend the dinner.

AIR RAID TEST SUCCESSFUL IN ADAMS COUNTY

Adams county's air raid wardens and other civilian defense officials "performed exceptionally well Thursday night during the blackout," members of the Adams County Council of Defense said today.

The 50-minute blackout, the first since January 11, found the county well-prepared and the civilian defense force was out in ample strength to man all posts, it was stated.

"Did a Beautiful Job"

Reports to the county control center disclosed that all community control centers were manned a few seconds after the yellow signal at 9:43 p. m.

The county control center at that time asked each control center to check on the civilian defense workers on the streets, so that a record could be made of how the draft of men from the county, and movings from the county, have affected the CD set-up.

The survey disclosed that every post was manned and that the men turned out "possibly in greater numbers than they did when monthly tests were conducted," it was stated.

No reports of any violations were received by the county control center despite the fact that no tests had been held for the longest period since the war began. While wardens proved a "little rusty" in some instances, they soon swung into their accustomed roles and "did a beautiful job," county defense heads said.

New Helmets Here

All calls went through in rapid time and the county's defense radio system was in operation between the Gettysburg control center and the county control center.

"The response appeared to be better in this test on the part of all concerned than it has been for some time," a defense head asserted.

Forty metal helmets to be worn by key CD men have been received by the county council. The helmets weigh approximately three pounds apiece and are painted white.

Wounds Self While Hunting Pigeons

Walter Harner, 33, Taneytown, was treated at the Warner hospital this morning for gunshot wounds to his left hand.

Harner was hunting pigeons on his farm when he is reported to have stumbled and fallen, his cocked 12-gauge shotgun discharging. His left index finger and thumb were amputated. He also received minor wounds of the other fingers. After receiving treatment he was admitted as a patient to the hospital.

"Gettysburg" Symphony To Be Played By Boston Orchestra; N. Y. Radio Premier Saturday

By TOM CHASE

Boston, April 14 (AP)—The world premiere of Roy Harris' Sixth or "Gettysburg" Symphony by the Boston Symphony Orchestra today at 2:30 p. m. in Boston Symphony hall, brings to fulfillment a musical life uniquely associated with Abraham Lincoln.

The tall, angular, middle-western composer long has felt the influence of Lincoln. Born on Lincoln's birthday in Lincoln county, Oklahoma, he spent some of his earliest years believing that school was dismissed February 12th because it was his own birthday.

Shadow of Lincoln

In later life, too, "the shadow of Abe Lincoln has hovered over me," he said, during a Symphony Hall interview.

"The Blue network commissioned me to compose a symphony of historic nature and dedicate it to the armed forces," he explained, as Serge Koussevitzky led the orchestra through a final rehearsal of the score.

"I had been thinking of Lincoln's Gettysburg Address and realizing that Lincoln was the personification of a human ideal, an ideal for freedom, which had to be fought, bled and lived for.

"Suddenly one morning I woke up about three a. m. and I seemed to see the address divided into four logical parts. They seemed exactly right."

From that one thought the new work developed into its present form, he said. Instead of using the customary musical designations for the movements, he wrote in simple words. The first movement he called "Awakening," reflecting the opening phrases of Lincoln's speech. Then came "conflict," "dedication," and "affirmation."

On Air Staurday

"I did not attempt to express musically the meaning of the words," Harris said.

"Rather I felt that the Gettysburg Address was as pertinent a comment on world conditions today as one could find anywhere. For that reason, too, I used bell-like harmonies in some sections of the score, suggesting symbolically the words 'let freedom ring.'"

The network will have its first radio performance Saturday night, at 8:30 p. m. over the Blue network, exactly 79 years after the death of Lincoln.

ADD HONOR ROLL NAMES BEFORE MEMORIAL DAY

More than 3,100 names of Adams countians in the armed forces will be on the honor roll in center square when the most recently purchased name plates are added sometime prior to May 30, it was announced Thursday evening at a meeting of the Honor Roll committee at the First National Bank building.

Nearly $1,000 has been spent by the committee so far in purchasing name plates, setting up the case which holds the names, purchasing glass for the case and other expenditures. All of the money was given the committee by voluntary donations from individuals and organizations throughout the county.

Approximately $40 a month is being expended to purchase name plates for the more than 100 men inducted each month into the armed forces by the two Adams county draft boards. To meet the expenditures the committee asks for further contributions today. It was pointed out that all names are placed in the case free of charge and the only way the committee has to raise money is from voluntary donations by organizations or individuals.

Add 424 Names

The 424 names which will be added to the list when the case is opened sometime next month will bring to more than 3,100 the number of countians listed. The number to be added may be more than the figure listed Thursday night, with a number of others scheduled for printing and if the nameplates are ready prior to the May 30 deadline they also will be included.

A metal railing to be placed around the case is being completed at the Gettysburg furniture factories and may be installed by Memorial day, it was stated. A new coat of paint will be applied to the cases. The new names to be added will be placed in alphabetical order in the spaces not occupied by the present list of names because of the difficult task of placing all the names in the alphabetical lists at present on the board, it was decided.

The committee agreed upon a metal gold star to be placed before the names of the men who are killed in action. The stars are furnished free by the company which prints the names. The few names on the board which have already been printed with stars denoting that the men have made the supreme sacrifice will be removed and reprinted so that metal stars can be placed.

Replace Plates

The present name plates will then be given to the parents of the sol-

Plan Missionary Meeting Tuesday

The missionary conference of the Adams county district of the Central Pennsylvania Synod of the United Lutheran Church will be held Tuesday afternoon and evening at the First Lutheran church, New Oxford, it was announced today.

Mrs. William H. Menges, president of the Central Pennsylvania Synod and Miss Hilda Kaercher, returned missionary from India, will be the speakers at the opening session starting at 2 o'clock. Following a supper at 5:30 p. m., the evening session will begin at 7:30 o'clock. The speaker for the evening will be the Rev. Malcolm Shutters, returned missionary from China. Mrs. H. F. Michael of Christ Lutheran church here will conduct the devotional service. The Rev. George E. Sheffer is pastor of the host church.

NEW DRAFT RULE IS SERIOUS FOR SEMINARY HERE

Dr. A. R. Wentz, president of the Gettysburg Lutheran Theological seminary and treasurer of the American Association of Theological Schools, said today he expects that the officers of the association will meet within the next few days—possibly in Washington or New York—to consider what policy the theological seminaries of the nation should adopt with regard to the new Selective Service rule which cancels deferments for pre-theological students in seminaries by July 1.

Securing official information only this morning on the interpretation of the new Selective Service rules, Doctor Wentz said the effect of the rule may be "pretty serious" for it apparently means that no new students will be available for the theological seminaries after July 1 of this year.

26 College Students

One matter which likely will be discussed by the officers of the association of theological schools will be the possibility of admitting students to seminaries with less than the usual four years of college preparation. Doctor Wentz pointed out that some medical and other post-graduate schools already have adopted that course.

There are 26 pre-ministerial students at Gettysburg college now but several are seniors and will have been graduated and enrolled at the seminary for the new term which begins in June—before the July 1 deadline set by the Selective Service.

ULCA Acts

New York, April 14 (AP)—The executive board of the United Lutheran Church in America disclosed today that it would protest instructions by Maj. Gen. Lewis B. Hershey, Selective Service director, dropping deferments of pre-theological students on and after July 1.

The announcement said a telegram would be sent to General Hershey detailing the action taken yesterday at the first of the board's quarterly meetings here.

The board said the telegram would protest cancellation of pre-theological student deferments because it would "rob our country of

Vet Of South Pacific Engagements Home

Wearing three service stars indicating having participated in three engagements, John Jacob Sneeringer, air machinists' mate second class, of the Naval Air Corps, is now spending a 25-day leave with his mother, Mrs. Pearl Sneeringer, Buchanan Valley, Orrtanna R. 1.

Sneeringer enlisted shortly after Pearl Harbor and for the last year has been stationed in the South Pacific war zone. He was stationed at New Caledonia, Florida islands, Guadacanal and the Solomons.

Soldier Killed In Bomber Crash

Staff Sergeant George W. Myers, 23, tail gunner aboard a B-24 bomber reported missing last November, is dead, the War Department has notified his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bert A. Myers, Menges Mills. The message said the young flyer was killed in the crash of his bomber while on a practice bombing mission in Alaska.

He entered the service in August, 1942. Among the survivors is a half-sister, Mrs. Curvin Fissel, East Berlin.

POLITICAL POT SIMMERS FOR PRIMARY DAY

The primary political pot is beginning to simmer with revived interest noted throughout the county, although bigwigs of the two major parties frankly admit "the vote is going to be very light."

The center of attraction is the two-way fight for the Republican nomination for Congress with Chester H. Gross, of Manchester, York county, seeking the nomination for re-election to his third term. He served from 1938-1940 and 1942-1944.

His nomination is being contested by Attorney Leighton C. Taylor, of Bendersville, the second Adams county candidate for the congressional post since 1914.

County Leaders Not Committed

Taylor's candidacy has been endorsed by the Republican state committee and by party chieftains in York and Franklin counties. Adams county Republican leaders have not committed themselves in the primary campaign.

Gross is supported by the organization he developed during his congressional service and he is supplementing his campaign visits with radio addresses.

Another G O P Race

Little interest is being evidenced in the campaign for the Democratic nomination for Congress.

J. W. Gitt and George G. L. Sichelstell, both of York county, are battling for the honor of representing the Democratic party on the ticket next November.

Much interest also centers around the fight for the Republican nomination for the state legislature.

Worley-Pitzer Contest

Francis Worley, of near York Springs, is seeking the nomination for re-election, having won the office two years ago.

He is being opposed by H. Earl Pitzer, of Aspers.

In this campaign factional differences have developed within the Republican ranks with one element supporting Worley for re-election and the other turning in for Pitzer.

Supporters of both contestants have issued claims to victory although the primary is not until April 25th.

Basehore Unopposed

Another contest of interest is the campaign for the vice-chairmanship of the Republican county committee.

Mrs. Esther Hayberger is seeking re-election. She is opposed by Mrs. Evelyn Swope Neely. Both candidates are employed in Harrisburg and their friends are conducting their campaigns for them.

Chairman John H. Basehore of the Republican committee is unopposed for re-election.

Chauncey J. Smith of McSherrystown and Frank J. Slonaker of Gettysburg seek the county position on the Republican state committee. Fred G. Klunk, New Oxford, is unopposed for the Democratic state committee post.

George E. Little, Straban township, is unopposed for the Democratic nomination for the legislature.

Senator Paul M. Crider, Republican, and Lawrence C. Zeger, Democrat, both of Franklin county, are unopposed for nomination for the state senate.

Services Held Today For Edward Harting

Funeral services were held this morning from St. Joseph's Catholic church, Emmitsburg, for Edward Harting who died Tuesday morning. The pastor, the Rev. Francis Rogers, officiated. Interment was made in the church cemetery.

The pallbearers were Bernie Boyle, Joseph Elder, Joseph Kreitz, George Ashbaugh, Harry Kelly and Harvey Warner.

HOSPITAL REPORT

Mrs. Martin J. Kaas, Rocky Ridge, Maryland, and Hattie McCreary, Fairfield, have been admitted as patients to the Warner hospital. Those discharged were Samuel Strausbaugh, East Middle street; Mrs. L. J. Werner, Irwin, R. 4; Mrs. George White and infant daughter, Janet Elizabeth, Gettysburg R. 3, and Mrs. Charles Champlain and infant daughter, Judith Anne, South Washington street.

"Dead Hitlerites" Cover Retreat Of Nazis In Crimea

By EDDY GILMORE

Moscow, April 14 (AP)—The prospect of the fall of Sevastopol today—The Russian orthodox Good Friday—gripped the imagination of the Russian people as the Red Army slashed through disorganized groups of Germans and Romanians, many of whom were surrendering by battalions.

Red Star's correspondent, Maj. Vasily Ignatiev, said "the enemy has cracked at the seams," with fleeing Axis troops out of control and in great confusion, as Gen. Feodor I. Tolbukhin's Fourth Ukrainian Army and Gen. Andrei I. Yeremenko's Maritime Army bore down on the Naval base which resisted enemy attack for nine months in 1941 and 1942.

Commanders Desert Troops

Scores of German and Romanian battalions deserted by their commanders raced for the port in the bright Crimean sun but it appeared that even if they reached the base before the Red Army tanks their escape would be impossible.

"Your tanks have made sheep of us," said tough German Lt. Wolfgang Rost. "We are racing to the sea, but even if we get there we have no place to go. Those of us who do not surrender will be killed."

The plain-speaking officer who was captured on the road between Simferopol and Sevastopol, made the statement to Red Army officers in the presence of the correspondent for the Moscow newspaper Izvestia.

A Red Star correspondent with Gen. Andrei I. Yeremenko's Maritime Army driving down the highway which skirts the southern coast of the Crimea from Feodosiya said that the Germans and Romanians are retreating in such a hurry that they have no time to destroy their dumps of food and supplies.

"The retreat is covered by dead Hitlerites," this correspondent reported.

Capture 20,000 Prisoners

London, April 14 (AP)—Gen. Feodor I. Tolbukhin's Fourth Ukrainian Army, spearheaded by Cossack cavalry, tanks and motorized artillery, rolled down through the southern Crimea today toward Sevastopol, less than 25 miles away, and Moscow declared that German and Romanian troops were fleeing in panic before the relentless Russian drive to reconquer the peninsula.

Overhead waves of Stormovik dive-bombers were reported bombing and strafing broken and disorganized enemy columns racing toward coastal evacuation ports in what appeared to be a futile effort to escape the vengeance of the Red Army.

Already more than 20,000 Axis prisoners have been captured, a Russian communique said.

Missing

Pfc. Orby W. McMillion, 30, 406 South Washington street, who has been "missing in action since February 18," according to a War Department telegram received here Tuesday morning by his wife, Mrs. Corean McMillion. Inducted last May, McMillion was assigned to an infantry outfit and went overseas in October. He formerly worked in a local furniture factory and at the Naval Depot at Mechanicsburg.

American housewives turned in approximately 18,000,000 pounds of household fats during January, compared with 11,425,000 pounds during December. The figures for February and March are not available as yet. Despite the increase in January the government urges a further increase in fats salvage to meet the 1944 quota of 230,000,000 pounds. The goal for 1945 has already been set at 400,000,000 pounds.

Some folks are at a loss to understand why so much fats is needed and what it is used for. Here are some of the items that require household fats:

Explosives for chemical mortars, demolition bombs, howitzers, anti-tank guns, trench mortars, etc.; military medicines such as sulfa ointments, antiseptics for the treatment of gas gangrene, smallpox vaccines, insulin, surgical jellies; synthetic rubber, airplane lubricants, depth-charge releases, incendiary bombs, de-icing fluids for airplanes, nylon for parachutes, hydraulic fluids, fabrics, for textiles, food products, railroad lubricants, civilian soaps, insecticides and fungicides, rubber processing and dozens and dozens of other uses.

Every pound you save is a pound contributed toward the war effort.

The Swedish paper Svenska Morgenbladet reports on invasion preparations as revealed by a German newspaper. The German report stated: "Preparations to meet the invasion are now so far advanced that certain Dutch areas have already been flooded, and everything is prepared for the flooding of wider areas.

"The Germans have built a second defense line further inland in case the Allies should succeed in breaking through the Atlantic Wall. This line, like the actual coast line, consists of deep fortifications and bunkers.

"Every town inside the wide coastal strip has been turned into a fortress with tank traps, mine fields, barbed wire obstacles, and bunkers in a wide circle around the town. War-seasoned divisions from the Eastern Front are now stationed in Holland, Belgium, north France."

Late News Briefs

New York, April 14 (AP)—A brief flurry of invasion rumors was set off last night by a Canadian report of a German broadcast that "an invasion force headed by Canadians" had landed in France south of Calais—but it apparently was simply a garbled version of a Nazi "we dare you" warning mentioning the Dieppe landing in 1942.

The county control center at that time asked each control center to check on the civilian defense workers on the streets, so that a record could be made of how the draft of men from the county, and movings from the county, have affected the CD set-up.

The survey disclosed that every post was manned and that the men turned out "possibly in greater numbers than they did when monthly tests were conducted," it was stated.

No reports of any violations were received by the county control center despite the fact that no tests had been held for the longest period since the war began. While wardens proved a "little rusty" in some instances, they soon swung into their accustomed roles and "did a beautiful job," county defense heads said.

New Helmets Here

All calls went through in rapid time and the county's defense radio system was in operation between the Gettysburg control center and the county control center.

"The response appeared to be better in this test on the part of all concerned than it has been for some time," a defense head asserted.

Forty metal helmets to be worn by key CD men have been received by the county council. The helmets weigh approximately three pounds apiece and are painted white.

Harner was hunting pigeons on his farm when he is reported to have stumbled and fallen, his cocked 12-gauge shotgun discharging. His left index finger and thumb were amputated. He also received minor wounds of the other fingers. After receiving treatment he was admitted as a patient to the hospital.

"Gettysburg" Symphony To Be Played By Boston Orchestra; N. Y. Radio Premier Saturday

By TOM CHASE

Boston, April 14 (AP)—The world premiere of Roy Harris' Sixth or "Gettysburg" Symphony by the Boston Symphony Orchestra today at 2:30 p. m. in Boston Symphony hall, brings to fulfillment a musical life uniquely associated with Abraham Lincoln.

The tall, angular, middle-western composer long has felt the influence of Lincoln. Born on Lincoln's birthday in Lincoln county, Oklahoma, he spent some of his earliest years believing that school was dismissed February 12th because it was his own birthday.

Shadow of Lincoln

In later life, too, "the shadow of Abe Lincoln has hovered over me," he said, during a Symphony Hall interview.

"The Blue network commissioned me to compose a symphony of historic nature and dedicate it to the armed forces," he explained, as Serge Koussevitzky led the orchestra through a final rehearsal of the score.

"I had been thinking of Lincoln's Gettysburg Address and realizing that Lincoln was the personification of a human ideal, an ideal for freedom, which had to be fought, bled and lived for.

"Suddenly one morning I woke up about three a. m. and I seemed to see the address divided into four logical parts. They seemed exactly right."

From that one thought the new work developed into its present form, he said. Instead of using the customary musical designations for the movements, he wrote in simple words. The first movement he called "Awakening," reflecting the opening phrases of Lincoln's speech. Then came "conflict," "dedication," and "affirmation."

On Air Staurday

"I did not attempt to express musically the meaning of the words," Harris said.

"Rather I felt that the Gettysburg Address was as pertinent a comment on world conditions today as one could find anywhere. For that reason, too, I used bell-like harmonies in some sections of the score, suggesting symbolically the words 'let freedom ring.'"

The network will have its first radio performance Saturday night, at 8:30 p. m. over the Blue network, exactly 79 years after the death of Lincoln.

ADD HONOR ROLL NAMES BEFORE MEMORIAL DAY

More than 3,100 names of Adams countians in the armed forces will be on the honor roll in center square when the most recently purchased name plates are added sometime prior to May 30, it was announced Thursday evening at a meeting of the Honor Roll committee at the First National Bank building.

Nearly $1,000 has been spent by the committee so far in purchasing name plates, setting up the case which holds the names, purchasing glass for the case and other expenditures. All of the money was given the committee by voluntary donations from individuals and organizations throughout the county.

Approximately $40 a month is being expended to purchase name plates for the more than 100 men inducted each month into the armed forces by the two Adams county draft boards. To meet the expenditures the committee asks for further contributions today. It was pointed out that all names are placed in the case free of charge and the only way the committee has to raise money is from voluntary donations by organizations or individuals.

The 424 names which will be added to the list when the case is opened sometime next month will bring to more than 3,100 the number of countians listed. The number to be added may be more than the figure listed Thursday night, with a number of others scheduled for printing and if the nameplates are ready prior to the May 30 deadline they also will be included.

A metal railing to be placed around the case is being completed at the Gettysburg furniture factories and may be installed by Memorial day, it was stated. A new coat of paint will be applied to the cases. The new names to be added will be placed in alphabetical order in the spaces not occupied by the present list of names because of the difficult task of placing all the names in the alphabetical lists at present on the board, it was decided.

The committee agreed upon a metal gold star to be placed before the names of the men who are killed in action. The stars are furnished free by the company which prints the names. The few names on the board which have already been printed with stars denoting that the men have made the supreme sacrifice will be removed and reprinted so that metal stars can be placed.

Replace Plates

The present name plates will then be given to the parents of the sol-

Plan Missionary Meeting Tuesday

The missionary conference of the Adams county district of the Central Pennsylvania Synod of the United Lutheran Church will be held Tuesday afternoon and evening at the First Lutheran church, New Oxford, it was announced today.

Mrs. William H. Menges, president of the Central Pennsylvania Synod and Miss Hilda Kaercher, returned missionary from India, will be the speakers at the opening session starting at 2 o'clock. Following a supper at 5:30 p. m., the evening session will begin at 7:30 o'clock. The speaker for the evening will be the Rev. Malcolm Shutters, returned missionary from China. Mrs. H. F. Michael of Christ Lutheran church here will conduct the devotional service. The Rev. George E. Sheffer is pastor of the host church.

NEW DRAFT RULE IS SERIOUS FOR SEMINARY HERE

Dr. A. R. Wentz, president of the Gettysburg Lutheran Theological seminary and treasurer of the American Association of Theological Schools, said today he expects that the officers of the association will meet within the next few days —possibly in Washington or New York—to consider what policy the theological seminaries of the nation should adopt with regard to the new Selective Service rule which cancels deferments for pre-theological students in seminaries by July 1.

Securing official information only this morning on the interpretation of the new Selective Service rules ,Doctor Wentz said the effect of the rule may be "pretty serious" for it apparently means that no new students will be available for the theological seminaries after July 1 of this year.

26 College Students

One matter which likely will be discussed by the officers of the association of theological schools will be the possibility of admitting students to seminaries with less than the usual four years of college preparation. Doctor Wentz pointed out that some medical and other post-graduate schools already have adopted that course.

There are 26 pre-ministerial students at Gettysburg college now but several are seniors and will have been graduated and enrolled at the seminary for the new term which begins in June—before the July 1 deadline set by the Selective Service.

ULCA Acts

New York, April 14 (AP)—The executive board of the United Lutheran Church in America disclosed today that it would protest instructions by Maj. Gen. Lewis B. Hershey, Selective Service director, dropping deferments of pre-theological students on and after July 1.

The announcement said a telegram would be sent to General Hershey detailing the action taken yesterday at the first of the board's quarterly meetings here.

The board said the telegram would protest cancellation of pre-theological student deferments because it would "rob our country of

Vet Of South Pacific Engagements Home

Wearing three service stars indicating having participated in three engagements, John Jacob Sneeringer, air machinists' mate second class, of the Naval Air Corps, is now spending a 25-day leave with his mother, Mrs. Pearl Sneeringer, Buchanan Valley, Orrtanna R. 1.

Sneeringer enlisted shortly after Pearl Harbor and for the last year has been stationed in the South Pacific war zone. He was stationed at New Caledonia, Florida islands, Guadacanal and the Solomons.

Soldier Killed In Bomber Crash

Staff Sergeant George W. Myers, 23, tail gunner aboard a B-24 bomber reported missing last November, is dead, the War Department has notified his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bert A. Myers, Menges Mills. The message said the young flyer was killed in the crash of his bomber while on a practice bombing mission in Alaska.

He entered the service in August, 1942. Among the survivors is a half-sister, Mrs. Curvin Fissel, East Berlin.

POLITICAL POT SIMMERS FOR PRIMARY DAY

The primary political pot is beginning to simmer with revived interest noted throughout the county, although bigwigs of the two major parties frankly admit "the vote is going to be very light."

The center of attraction is the two-way fight for the Republican nomination for Congress with Chester H. Gross, of Manchester, York county, seeking the nomination for re-election to his third term. He served from 1938-1940 and 1942-1944.

His nomination is being contested by Attorney Leighton C. Taylor, of Bendersville, the second Adams county candidate for the congressional post since 1914.

County Leaders Not Committed

Taylor's candidacy has been endorsed by the Republican state committee and by party chieftains in York and Franklin counties. Adams county Republican leaders have not committed themselves in the primary campaign.

Gross is supported by the organization he developed during his congressional service and he is supplementing his campaign visits with radio addresses.

Another G O P Race

Little interest is being evidenced in the campaign for the Democratic nomination for Congress.

J. W. Gitt and George G. L. Sichelsteil, both of York county, are battling for the honor of representing the Democratic party on the ticket next November.

Much interest also centers around the fight for the Republican nomination for the state legislature.

Worley-Pitzer Contest

Francis Worley, of near York Springs, is seeking the nomination for re-election, having won the office two years ago.

He is being opposed by H. Earl Pitzer, of Aspers.

In this campaign factional differences have developed within the Republican ranks with one element supporting Worley for re-election and the other turning in for Pitzer.

Supporters of both contestants have issued claims to victory although the primary is not until April 25th.

Basehore Unopposed

Another contest of interest is the campaign for the vice-chairmanship of the Republican county committee.

Mrs. Esther Hayberger is seeking re-election. She is opposed by Mrs. Evelyn Swope Neely. Both candidates are employed in Harrisburg and their friends are conducting their campaigns for them.

Chairman John H. Basehore of the Republican committee is unopposed for re-election.

Chauncey J. Smith of McSherrystown and Frank J. Slonaker of Gettysburg seek the county position on the Republican state committee. Fred G. Klunk, New Oxford, is unopposed for the Democratic state committee post.

George E. Little, Straban township, is unopposed for the Democratic nomination for the legislature.

Senator Paul M. Crider, Republican, and Lawrence C. Zeger, Democrat, both of Franklin county, are unopposed for nomination for the state senate.

"Dead Hitlerites" Cover Retreat Of Nazis In Crimea

By EDDY GILMORE

Moscow, April 14 (AP)—The prospect of the fall of Sevastopol today—The Russian orthodox Good Friday—gripped the imagination of the Russian people as the Red Army slashed through disorganized groups of Germans and Romanians, many of whom were surrendering by battalions.

Red Star's correspondent, Maj. Vasily Ignatiev, said "the enemy has cracked at the seams," with fleeing Axis troops out of control and in great confusion, as Gen. Feodor I. Tolbukhin's Fourth Ukrainian Army and Gen. Andrei I. Yeremenko's Maritime Army bore down on the Naval base which resisted enemy attack for nine months in 1941 and 1942.

Commanders Desert Troops

Scores of German and Romanian battalions deserted by their commanders raced for the port in the bright Crimean sun but it appeared that even if they reached the base before the Red Army tanks their escape would be impossible.

"Your tanks have made sheep of us," said tough German Lt. Wolfgang Rost. "We are racing to the sea, but even if we get there we have no place to go. Those of us who do not surrender will be killed."

The plain-speaking officer who was captured on the road between Simferopol and Sevastopol, made the statement to Red Army officers in the presence of the correspondent for the Moscow newspaper Izvestia.

A Red Star correspondent with Gen. Andrei I. Yeremenko's Maritime Army driving down the highway which skirts the southern coast of the Crimea from Feodosiya said that the Germans and Romanians are retreating in such a hurry that they have no time to destroy their dumps of food and supplies.

"The retreat is covered by dead Hitlerites," this correspondent reported.

Capture 20,000 Prisoners

London, April 14 (AP)—Gen. Feodor I. Tolbukhin's Fourth Ukrainian Army, spearheaded by Cossack cavalry, tanks and motorized artillery, rolled down through the southern Crimea today toward Sevastopol, less than 25 miles away, and Moscow declared that German and Romanian troops were fleeing in panic before the relentless Russian drive to reconquer the peninsula.

Overhead waves of Stormovik dive-bombers were reported bombing and strafing broken and disorganized enemy columns racing toward coastal evacuation ports in what appeared to be a futile effort to escape the vengeance of the Red Army.

Already more than 20,000 Axis prisoners have been captured, a Russian communique said.

McMillion, 30, 406 South Washington street, who has been "missing in action since February 18," according to a War Department telegram received here Tuesday morning by his wife, Mrs. Corean McMillion. Inducted last May, McMillion was assigned to an infantry outfit and went overseas in October. He formerly worked in a local furniture factory and at the Naval Depot at Mechanicsburg.

Here And There

News Collected At Random

American housewives turned in approximately 18,000,000 pounds of household fats during January, compared with 11,425,000 pounds during December. The figures for February and March are not available as yet. Despite the increase in January the government urges a further increase in fats salvage to meet the 1944 quota of 230,000,000 pounds. The goal for 1945 has already been set at 400,000,000 pounds.

Some folks are at a loss to understand why so much fats is needed and what it is used for. Here are some of the items that require household fats:

Explosives for chemical mortars, demolition bombs, howitzers, anti-tank guns, trench mortars, etc.; military medicines such as sulfa ointments, antiseptics for the treatment of gas gangrene, smallpox vaccines, insulin, surgical jellies; synthetic rubber, airplane lubricants, depth-charge releases, incendiary bombs, de-icing fluids for airplanes, nylon for parachutes, hydraulic fluids, fabrics, for textiles, food products, railroad lubricants, civilian soaps, insecticides and fungicides, rubber processing and dozens and dozens of other uses.

Every pound you save is a pound contributed toward the war effort.

The Swedish paper Svenska Morgenbladet reports on invasion preparations as revealed by a German newspaper. The German report stated: "Preparations to meet the invasion are now so far advanced that certain Dutch areas have already been flooded, and everything is prepared for the flooding of wider areas.

"The Germans have built a second defense line further inland in case the Allies should succeed in breaking through the Atlantic Wall. This line, like the actual coast line, consists of deep fortifications and bunkers.

"Every town inside the wide coastal strip has been turned into a fortress with tank traps, mine fields, barbed wire obstacles, and bunkers in a wide circle around the town. War-seasoned divisions from the Eastern Front are now stationed in Holland, Belgium, north France."

FRANTIC NAZIS SEEKING PEACE TO SPLIT ALLIES

BY DEWITT MACKENZIE
(Associated Press War Analyst)

Hitler's desperate military situation has driven him to start another peace campaign in which he is trying to bamboozle America and Britain into throwing over Russia and making a bargain with the Reich—a suggestion which Secretary of State Hull characterizes as infamous.

The Fuehrer has enlisted the aid of his warm friend Dictator Franco of Spain to persuade the western Allies that Russia is a greater danger to them than a victorious Germany ever could be. The Generalissimo's Falange party newspaper Arriba in making this claim declares that hostilities must cease immediately—that's how acute the position is The paper adds:

No "Flash In The Pan"

Russia on the Dardanelles and Mediterranean, Russia on the North Atlantic, Russia on the Pacific with a territorial continuity only she possesses, would not be a pleasant experience. Russia's inexhaustible human resources would permit her to place in operation military and Naval forces greater than all others in the world."

This propaganda is no flash in the pan, for Hitler's own newspaper Voelkischer Beobachter set the wheels turning the other day It declared that the English and Americans must invade western Europe, since otherwise the war might end with Stalin the sole conqueror of Europe. The intimation is, of course, that such an ending would raise hell.

Well, if that happened it certainly would create a mountainous predicament. However, it can't happen, because the Anglo-American Allies are playing a major part in the war. Russia doesn't claim to be winning alone. On the contrary Marshal Stalin made this neat little toast at the Teheran conference:

Harmony and Cooperation

"Without American production the United Nations never could have won the war." And production is only one phase of vital Allied participation.

Obviously the post-war wheels will turn a lot easier if the Allies march into Germany together. Still, while we must accept the probability that the Soviet Union will emerge as the dominant power of the eastern hemisphere, there need be no war over that. What we have to remember is that cooperation among the major Allies is the essential for peace. As Secretary Hull put it last Sunday in discussing American foreign policy:

"However difficult the road may be, there is no hope of turning victory into enduring peace unless the real interest of this country, the British Commonwealth, the Soviet Union and China are harmonized and unless they agree and act together. This is the solid framework upon which all future policy and international organization must be built."

Unconditional Surrender

With cooperation we have peace; without it we get war. That's the whole story no matter who reaches Berlin first, or who is dominant in any given zone

One too often encounters repetition of the Hitlerian propaganda that we must some day fight Russia. Frequently this is based vaguely on the idea that we can't ward off Communism otherwise. That's a fallacious notion. There's no reason why we can't be allied to Russia, or any other country, and at the same time bar its political ism from our own domains The Soviet isn't going to try to make us swallow Communism at the point of the bayonet, and we don't have to accept it in order to appease Moscow.

Anyway, we aren't making peace with Hitler because of fear of Russia He knows the terms—unconditional surrender—and he can have peace on that basis any time he wants it though he personally may get a hangman's noose to go along with it

Travelers Should Be Sure Of Reservations

The Adams county Red Cross today asked all persons leaving Adams county to visit relatives in Army camps or Navy posts either to contact the Red Cross before leaving or to be sure that there are accommodations available before they go to the camps

During the last six months, it was stated, a number of Red Cross chapters adjacent to Army posts have notified the local Red Cross of countless stranded in those places, or unable to secure any accommodations there A number of chapters have asked the local Red Cross to urge people not to visit those sections unless arrangements are made for quarters before leaving Adams county

The latest request is from the Travelers' Aid society of San Diego which urged the Red Cross to prevail upon persons whose visits are non-essential to stay at home. "Inexperienced travelers do not realize that visitors in San Diego are going from hotel to hotel, house to house, following every possible clue to locate shelter, only to find, after hours of searching, that there is no place for them," the letter said in part

MACARTHUR FOR WAR SECRETARY IS SUGGESTED

By JACK BELL

Washington, April 14 (AP)—The appointment of Gen. Douglas MacArthur as secertary of war was proposed by a republican and a democratic senator today as politicians calculated the effect of correspondence which most of them interpreted as indicating MacArthur is receptive to a GOP presidential nomination.

Chiefly by what he left unsaid in an exchange of letters just made public by Rep. Miller (R-Neb), MacArthur apparently left the way open for a draft movement, and heartened supporters declared they would canvas convention delegates in an effort to persuade them to nominate the general.

Replying to suggestions by Miller that he hold himself ready for a nomination with which the Nebraskan predicted MacArthur could carry every state, the general wrote that he did not anticipate fulfillment of these "flattering predictions." He did not say he would not accept such a nomination.

MacArthur expressed interest in Miller's critical appraisal of home front conditions and warned against letting the nation "slip into the same condition internally as the one which we fight externally."

"Willing To Run"

Practical politicians took this to mean that MacArthur would be willing to run. But some of those not classed among his enthusiasts thought this word had come to light too late to overcome the lead Gov. Thomas E. Dewey of New York has acquired in an equally unauthorized scramble for convention delegates. The draft movement thus far has given MacArthur only three, as against 148 pledged and claimed for Dewey. (Needed to nominate: 530).

Senator Thomas (R-Idaho), one of those who thinks it will be Dewey on the first ballot, said he would like to see the party's nominee announce that he would ask MacArthur to return home to replace secretary of War Stimson, himself a republican.

"It certainly would help the war effort to have MacArthur in that cabinet post." Thomas told a reporter.

ARMY IGNORES COURT RULE ON MARTIAL LAW

Honolulu, April 14 (AP)—Martial law in Hawaii, starting point of the Pacific war, was ruled invalid by a federal judge but military leaders proclaimed it still in force today and said violations of general orders would be subject to provost court trials.

The War Department prepared to appeal a decision by Federal Judge Delbert E. Metzger that a provost court was without authority to try a Navy yard worker and sentence him to prison on conviction of assaulting two Marine sentries.

The judge's ruling yesterday came at the conclusion of a trial at which Hawaii's Military Governor, Lt. Gen. Robert C. Richardson testified martial law was vital to protect the islands from existing perils. Adm. Chester W. Nimitz, another witness, had said Pearl Harbor was in danger of such attacks as the one which started the war Dec. 7, 1941 so long as a single Japanese aircraft carrier remains afloat.

Invasion Danger Over

Judge Metzger, in upholding the release on a habeas corpus writ of the Navy yard worker, Lloyd C. Duncan, formerly of Sheridan, Wyo., pointed out that both General Richardson and Admiral Nimitz agreed there was no danger of actual invasion.

He ruled that the right to establish martial law under Hawaii's organic act "ceases and becomes unlawful as soon as the civil government is capable and willing to resume its normal functions."

He added that throughout 1943 the civilian government was sufficiently equipped, capable and willing to perform all of the functions for which it is created."

Col. W. R C Morrison, executive officer to General Richardson, said the War Department would appeal the decision immediately, adding:

"Pending a decision by the highest court, the office of military governor will function as usual and violations of general orders will continue to be tried in provost courts."

"After June, 1947, our high school will continue as a day school only."

It was stated today that for the last several years the number of boarding students at the high school has fallen to a very small number, with most of the high school students being from Gettysburg, Emmitsburg and surrounding sections who attend as day students.

diers and sailors who died while in the service.

Three misspelled names, seven split name plates and two plates that are missing will be replaced.

Investigation by the committee disclosed that in two instances reported mistakes were not errors. A number of individuals have reported two names appearing twice on the board. A check on the list of men in service from both boards disclosed that on those two occasions two men, both with the same first and last names and initial have been sent into the service. One man was sent by the New Oxford board and the other by the Gettysburg board.

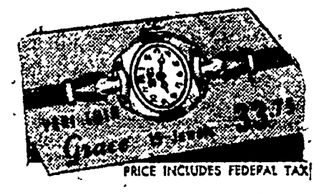

A number of new names were presented to the committee. In some cases the committee today was sending letters to the persons furnishing the names to secure more information about the individual. In some instances cards were received asking that a name be placed on the board without listing who sent the name, or what address the individual may have had before going into service.

Who Is Eligible

A resolution passed by the board at an earlier meeting was used as a guide to determine the eligibility of men and women to be placed on the honor roll. The resolution stated that "Any man or woman who has been in the service, regardless of how long, since December 7, 1941, will be regarded as eligible for the honor roll, but their home address must be in Adams county on or since December 7, 1941."

Under the resolution men or women who may have been in service prior to December 7, 1941, and have continued in service since that date, and who have always given Adams county as their home, are eligible. Men and women who always lived in Adams county and who lived for a brief time at some other place where they were engaged in war work are also considered as eligible if they have not established a home for more than a year at the place where they worked, it was stated.

FRANTIC NAZIS SEEKING PEACE TO SPLIT ALLIES

(Associated Press War Analyst)

Hitler's desperate military situation has driven him to start another peace campaign in which he is trying to bamboozle America and Britain into throwing over Russia and making a bargain with the Reich—a suggestion which Secretary of State Hull characterizes as infamous.

The Fuehrer has enlisted the aid of his warm friend Dictator Franco of Spain to persuade the western Allies that Russia is a greater danger to them than a victorious Germany ever could be. The Generalissimo's Falange party newspaper Arriba in making this claim declares that hostilities must cease immediately—that's how acute the position is. The paper adds:

No "Flash In The Pan"

"Russia on the Dardanelles and Mediterranean, Russia on the North Atlantic, Russia on the Pacific with a territorial continuity only she possesses, would not be a pleasant experience. Russia's inexhaustible human resources would permit her to place in operation military and Naval forces greater than all others in the world."

This propaganda is no flash in the pan, for Hitler's own newspaper Voelkischer Beobachter set the wheels turning the other day. It declared that the English and Americans must invade western Europe, since otherwise the war might end with Stalin the sole conqueror of Europe. The intimation is, of course, that such an ending would raise hell.

Well, if that happened it certainly would create a mountainous predicament. However, it can't happen, because the Anglo-American Allies are playing a major part in the war. Russia doesn't claim to be winning alone. On the contrary Marshal Stalin made this neat little toast at the Teheran conference:

Harmony and Cooperation

"Without American production the United Nations never could have won the war." And production is only one phase of vital Allied participation.

Obviously the post-war wheels will turn a lot easier if the Allies march into Germany together. Still, while we must accept the probability that the Soviet Union will emerge as the dominant power of the eastern hemisphere, there need be no war over that. What we have to remember is that cooperation among the major Allies is the essential for peace. As Secretary Hull put it last Sunday in discussing American foreign policy:

"However difficult the road may be, there is no hope of turning victory into enduring peace unless the real interest of this country, the British Commonwealth, the Soviet Union and China are harmonized and unless they agree and act together. This is the solid framework upon which all future policy and international organization must be built."

Unconditional Surrender

With cooperation we have peace; without it we get war. That's the whole story no matter who reaches Berlin first, or who is dominant in any given zone.

One too often encounters repetition of the Hitlerian propaganda that we must some day fight Russia. Frequently this is based vaguely on the idea that we can't ward off Communism otherwise. That's a fallacious notion. There's no reason why we can't be allied to Russia, or any other country, and at the same time bar its political ism from our own domains. The Soviet isn't going to try to make us swallow Communism at the point of the bayonet, and we don't have to accept it in order to appease Moscow.

Anyway, we aren't making peace with Hitler because of fear of Russia. He knows the terms—unconditional surrender—and he can have peace on that basis any time he wants it, though he personally may get a hangman's noose to go along with it.

Travelers Should Be Sure Of Reservations

The Adams county Red Cross today asked all persons leaving Adams county to visit relatives in Army camps or Navy posts either to contact the Red Cross before leaving or to be sure that there are accommodations available before going to the camps.

During the last six months, it was stated, a number of Red Cross chapters adjacent to Army posts have notified the local Red Cross of countians stranded at those places, or unable to secure any accommodations there. A number of chapters have asked the local Red Cross to urge people not to visit those sections unless arrangements are made for quarters before leaving Adams county.

The latest request is from the Travelers' Aid society of San Diego which urged the Red Cross to prevail upon persons whose visits are non-essential to stay at home. "Inexperienced travelers do not realize that visitors in San Diego are going from hotel to hotel, house to house, following every possible clue to locate shelter, only to find, after hours of searching, that there is no place for them," the letter said in part.

Washington, April 14 (AP)—Price administrator Chester Bowles told Congress Wednesday OPA has held in check average cost of living and declared proposed charges in the law would set off an orgy of war profiteering, encourage black markets and open the way for ruinous inflation. He appealed to the house banking committee to extend the life of OPA, essentially in its present form, beyond the June 30 expiration date.

Washington, April 14 (AP)—American troops overseas will hear major league baseball games broadcast this season through the armed forces radio service. The war department announced Wednesday arrangements for the broadcasts and rebroadcasts will be made so that the programs will reach troops at convenient listening hours, wherever they may be.

London, April 14 (AP)—Staff Sgt. Abelardo Rodriguez, 22, son of a former President of Mexico, is missing in action after a U. S. Eighth airforce bombing raid on Aschersleben, Germany, it was announced Wednesday. Rodriguez was radio operator and gunner on a heavy bomber. Crews who returned from the raid Feb. 22, in which 41 U. S. planes were lost, said his plane fell out of formation.

St. Joseph's High To Be Day School Only

St. Joseph's high school at Emmitsburg, which has operated as a boarding school since 1809, will end its boarding services by 1947, it was announced today.

A letter sent to arumnae of the institution states that "The Superiors have decided to close the boarding section of our high school. We are not accepting boarding students for the ninth grade beginning September, 1944. Our present boarders are not affected as they will continue on to graduation. We will accept new boarders for the tenth, eleventh and twelfth grades in September, 1944, and will accept boarders for the eleventh and twelfth grades in September, 1947.

"After June, 1947, our high school will continue as a day school only."

It was stated today that for the last several years the number of boarding students at the high school has fallen to a very small number, with most of the high school students being from Gettysburg, Emmitsburg and surrounding sections who attend as day students.

this future Protestant spiritual leadership, particularly since the number involved, approximately 1,750 men for the country as a whole, is utterly insignificant as compared with the total military establishment."

The Rev. Dr. Walton H. Greever, secretary of the denomination, said the protest was made on behalf of 1,250,000 Lutherans.

Methodist Resolution

Altoona, Pa., April 14 (AP)—A resolution, asking Paul V. McNutt, chairman of the war manpower commission, and Brig. Gen. Lewis B. Hershey, Selective Service head, to reconsider a recent ruling concerning drafting of theological students ,was adopted yesteerday by the Central Pennsylvania conference of the Methodist church.

The conference said the order would work a hardship because ministerial students will be deferred only if they are enrolled in theological seminaries by next July 1, not exempting those in pretheological courses.

diers and sailors who died while in the service.

Three misspelled names, seven split name plates and two plates that are missing will be replaced.

Investigation by the committee disclosed that in two instances reported mistakes were not errors. A number of individuals have reported two names appearing twice on the board. A check on the list of men in service from both boards disclosed that on those two occasions two men, both with the same first and last names and initial have been sent into the service. One man was sent by the New Oxford board and the other by the Gettysburg board.

A number of new names were presented to the committee. In some cases the committee today was sending letters to the persons furnishing the names to secure more information about the individual. In some instances cards were received asking that a name be placed on the board without listing who sent the name, or what address the individual may have had before going into service.

Who Is Eligible

A resolution passed by the board at an earlier meeting was used as a guide to determine the eligibility of men and women to be placed on the honor roll. The resolution stated that "Any man or woman who has been in the service, regardless of how long, since December 7, 1941, will be regarded as eligible for the honor roll, but their home address must be in Adams county on or since December 7, 1941."

Under the resolution men or women who may have been in service prior to December 7, 1941, and have continued in service since that date, and who have always given Adams county as their home, are eligible. Men and women who always lived in Adams county and who lived for a brief time at some other place where they were engaged in war work are also considered as eligible if they have not established a home for more than a year at the place where they worked, it was stated.

DODGERS WHIP PHILS 13 TO 11 FOR RED CROSS

New York, April 14 (AP)—Among the uncertainties surrounding wartime baseball, the fans can cling to one tried-and-true formula—the Dodgers are always the Dodgers.

Take for example the typical Dodgers doings of yesterday's Red Cross benefit game at Ebbets Field, in which Brooklyn triumphed over the Phillies, 13 to 11.

To start, ex-Dodger Fred Fitzsimmons, held his old team hitless for the first two innings in his first mound task since he became manager of the Phillies. That feat must have eased the divided loyalties of Hilda (the Bellringer) Chester, No. 1 Dodger fan and employe at Fitz's bowling alleys.

In the fifth Bill Hart and Stretch Schultz tried to occupy third base at the same time, with the result that they both were run down for a double play. Dixie Walker, an uncomfortable third baseman, rushed in for a pop fly in the sixth then pulled up and let it fall for a hit. And in the same inning, with two on base, Louis Olmo made a brilliant catch of a fly and then stood holding the ball, evidently thinking it was the third out, while two Phillies scampered home.

Olmo redeemed himself in the eighth when he belted a triple with two on base to tie the score and then stole home with the deciding run. And, as an added feature, Augie Galan, a switch hitter for more than ten years, batted left handed against southpaw Wilbur Reeser in the fourth and clouted a home run.

Other Developments

Philadelphia—Phillies purchased first-baseman Ulysses (Tony) Lupien from Red Sox as "insurance" at first in case it is necessary for Jimmy Wasdell to play in the outfield.

Cincinnati: Elmer Riddle slated to go full distance on mound today as Reds meet Cleveland.

St. Louis: Cards and Browns resume city series with Max Lanier and Bud Byerly pitching for Red Birds and Jack Kramer starting for Browns.

Chicago: Orval Grove and Hank Wyse opposing pitchers today as city series moves to Comiskey park for fourth game. American leaguers won 2-0 in ten innings yesterday.

New York Yankees: Spud Chandler, joining team until called for military service, tuned up his arm in batting practice and soon will be ready to take regular turn.

Philadelphia Athletics: Merely fattened batting averages against Buffalo but Lum Harris' three-hit pitching for seven innings looked good.

On Other Fields

New York Giants: Hard hitting, including homer by Hugh Luby, made them look better in first game at Polo Grounds than they did a year ago, despite licking by Yanks.

Detroit Tigers: Gloom over loss of J. P. Wood dspelled in part by news that shortstop Joe Hoover's draft status unsettled and he will be on hand for Tuesday's opener.

Boston: Braves and Red Sox play first of three-game series at Braves field with Al Javery opposing Emmet O'Neill on the mound.

HAEGG MAY RETURN

New York, April 14 (AP)—Gunder Haegg, the Swedish star whose tour of the United States was the big event of the 1943 track season, may return next summer accompanied by his countryman, Arne Andersson, holder of the world mile record. The Amateur Athletic Union has begun negotiations with Swedish athletic authorities to bring both runners here for the national outdoor championships at New York June 17 and 18.

BACKYARD FISHING

Caldwell, Idaho, April 14 (AP)—Members of the rod and gun club here don't propose to be deprived of their angling this year because of gasoline restrictions on pleasure driving—not if this plan works: The club has planted 25,000 trout in the Municipal park pond. Come August, they'll remove the fish to irrigation ditches which thread the town and surrounding area, then cast for them from their front lawns.

The prefix Mac attached to a name originally meant "son of."

Spectators Fete Big Jim Jeffries

Burbank, Calif., April 14 (AP)—Nine hundred spectators in Big Jim Jeffries boxing arena paid him tribute last night, his 69th birthday.

The former heavyweight champion of the world, from 1899 until his retirement in 1906, accepted a golden boxing glove mounted on a pedestal and autographed by many of his friends.

Ole Olson, stage and screen comedian, made the presentation, and Grace McDonald of the films placed a jewel-studded crown atop the former ring warrior's bald head, then kissed him.

Jim has lived in Burbank for 40 years. His arena is devoted to amateur boxing matches.

SPORTS ROUNDUP

By HUGH FULLERTON, JR.

New York, April 14 (AP)—Officials of the United States lawn tennis association are slightly perturbed because they've been able to dispose of only about 400 copies of their tennis lessons for boys and girls. . . Prexy Holcombe Ward figures that if the campaign to get tennis started in every high school and junior high in the country is to bear any fruit, the demand must increase sharply this spring. . . . The association sells four mimeographed "lessons," giving the fundamentals of stroke-making and strategy, for a dime. . . . Just by way of contrast, a query as to whether organized baseball offered any such service to beginners brought the reply from W. G. Bramham, the minor league headman, that many fine books on how to play baseball have been published but "to purchase them for general distribution throughout the country will be prohibitive from a cost standpoint."

Fights Last Night

(By The Associated Press)

Boston — Jimmy Mulligan, Lowell, Mass., knocked out John Thomas of New York (1) (light heavyweights).

Highland Park, N. J. — Herbie Katz, 179, Brooklyn, stopped Joe (Butch) Lynch, 169½, Plainfield, N. J. (6).

WILL MISS DERBY

Mexico City, April 14 (AP)—The owners of Mexico's two Kentucky Derby entries, Seeing Eye and Don Jose H., announced today that because of lack of transportation the horses will not be taken to Churchill Downs. Done Jose H. is owned by Bruno Paglia of Mexico City, Ben Smith of New York and Jose Herrera of Venezuela and Seeing Eye by G. Z. Carranza.

HURLS ONE-HITTER

New Orleans, April 14 (AP)—Nineteen-year-old Dick Callahan, who has pitched two no-hit games for Holy Cross college this spring, almost did it again last night. He held the Samuel J. Peters' high school nine to one hit in a 12-inning contest which Holy Cross won 1 to 0. Callahan, who fanned 20 men during the game, sacrificed in the winning run in the twelfth inning.

FEW SOLDIER BALLOTS

Pittsburgh, April 14 (AP)—Only 1,400 applications—or less than two out of every 100 eligible voters among Allegheny county's 125,000 men and women in the armed forces—have been received for absentee ballots for the April 25 primary, county election director David Olbum reported.

HARRIS CLAIMS "RAIDING" MAY RUIN BASEBALL

Hershey, Pa., April 14 (AP) — Minor league baseball will survive another war year unless the major circuits raid the smaller loops to fill manpower gaps, Bucky Harris, manager of the Buffalo Bisons of the International league predicted today.

Back in the minors after 22 years as a big leaguer, the man who led Washington to its first world championship in 1924 and managed the Philadelphia Phillies part of last season, foresaw a banner year for the national pastime on the eve of another campaign.

"Give baseball some close pennant races and the crowds will turn out in full force," declared the Bison's pilot, "but if the major league clubs that own minor loop franchises raid their farm teams they will wreck baseball.

Teams Hard Hit

"The majors have been hard hit by stars going into service, especially the New York Yankees and the St. Louis Cardinals, but this will undoubtedly help the game since it tends to make the flag races that much closer.

"In the International loop we are counting on a compact race to keep interest at a high pitch, particularly in Rochester and Newark, two of the three clubs in our circuit that are owned outright by major league clubs," added Bucky.

During the past four weeks Harris has had 35 men working out at this resort training camp with 15 of his players listed as 4-F's and six holding army discharges.

New Emergency Rations Developed

Washington, April 14 (AP)—Navy scientists disclosed Thursday development of a new "candy-type," tablet-form emergency rations for life boats and rafts, and declared a day's allotment weighed half as much and was more palatable to thirsty men than present shipwreck rations of the Navy and Merchant Marine.

Designed to take up as little space as possible in an emergency craft and to furnish food that can be taken with a minimum of difficulty when the mouth is dry, the new ration consists of three different types of tablets:

One of sucrose (sugar) and citric acid to provide fruity components and promote the flow of saliva;

One of sucrose corn syrup and citric acid, containing a butter scotch like material to provide butery fat;

One of sucrose corn syrup and malted milk.

Neapolitan Cops Get Extra Rations

Naples, April 13 (AP)—Neapolitan policemen are receiving a bigger food ration to bolster their morale and keep them honest.

"If any are caught taking bribes now at least they won't be able to say they had to do that because they were hungry," said Lt. Col. Charles Poletti, AMG director here.

He explained one difficulty in smashing black markets was a continuation of some of the corruption of Fascism among the police.

Louisiana is known as the Pelican state.

Montreal Canadiens New Hockey Champs

Montreal, April 14 (AP)—Hector (Toe) Blake, veteran captain of the Montreal Canadiens' hockey club, had a new playoff scoring record today as a reward for leading his club to its first Stanley Cup triumph since 1931.

The Canadiens won the coveted world championship trophy last night by taking a 5 to 4 "sudden death" overtime decision from the Chicago Blackhawks to gain a clean sweep of the four games of the final playoff series.

And by scoring the winning goal after nine minutes and 12 seconds of overtime after setting up all four Canadien goals during the regulation 60 minutes, Blake bagged a scoring record for himself. The five points ran his total for two rounds of the playoffs to 18 points, surpassing the record set last Sunday by his teammate, Maurice Richard.

TROUT SEASON OPENS SATURDAY

Harrisburg, April 14 (AP)—Pennsylvania anglers readied their favorite rods today and hoped for a sunny Saturday opening of the 1944 trout season.

Fish Commissioner Charles A. French said "the last few days of clearing weather will help the trout fishermen," adding that he believes swollen western streams will return to normal level by tomorrow.

Trout streams in other parts of the state are already in good condition and there are plenty of legal brownies and rainbows, he declared.

The commission this spring stocked more than 1,000,000 trout from seven to 18 inches.

Wet fly and bait fishermen, because of recent chilling weather, stand the best chance to fill their creels but said that a warm sun will brighten the prospects for the dry fly angler.

Urges Preventive Steps Against Borer

Harrisburg, April 14 (AP)—Farmers and Victory gardeners of Pennsylvania were urged today to take immediate action to halt the damage by the European corn borer, which last summer damaged $1,000,000 worth of sweet corn in this state.

Miles Horst, secretary of agriculture, said "even greater losses could be expected next summer unless preventive steps" are taken now and added:

"Many Victory gardeners and farmers in the heavily infested southeastern and northeastern counties have met and will meet the April 15 deadline for burning and plowing under old corn stubble and stalks. All such work should be completed by tomorrow, and certainly not later than the end of next week."

Tanker Sunk With Loss Of 44 Crewmen

San Francisco, Apr. 14 (AP)—The torpedoing and sinking of the Standard Oil tanker H. D. Collier in the Arabian Sea a month ago with the loss of 44 officers and men was announced Wednesday by the 12th Naval District and the Standard Oil company.

Ten officers and men of the tanker and 16 members of the Navy armed guard were rescued.

Reported missing were 33 officers and men of the tankers personnel and 11 members of the armed guard.

The missing included the ship's master, Capt. Joseph Fox, of Oakland, California.

MERMAIDS IN SWIM TOURNEY

Oakland, Calif., April 14 (AP)—with the pick of America's mermaids competing, the three-day National A.A.U. senior women's swimming and diving championships open today in the Athens club pool.

The trials start at 1:30 p. m. and the finals at 7:45 p. m.

Tonight's events will feature the 100-yard free style race, one-meter spring board diving and 300-yard individual medley. Marie Corridon, 14-year-old New Yorker and titlist of the 100-yard metropolitan free style in 1:03.6, and San Francisco's 18-year-old Ann Curtis are the top favorites in the sprint event.

Anne K. Ross, 20, Brooklyn, is defending champion in the one and three meter diving, while Nancy Merki, 17-year-old title holder of the Multnomah club, Portland, Ore., is the western favorite in the 300-yard medley.

With Gov. John Bricker, Ohio's presidential candidate, in attendance, the 400-yard free style relay, 100-yard backstroke, 220-yard breast stroke and 440-yard free style finals will be held Saturday night. Elimination events are being staged in the afternoons.

The Sunday card includes the 100-yard breast stroke 3-meter spring board diving, 220-yard free style and 300-yard medley relay.

8 PERISH IN FIRE

Lawrence, Kas., April 14 (AP)—Eight inmates perished in a fire which destroyed the Douglas county home for indigents Thurs. Twenty-nine others escaped without injury. Caretake George Hoskinson said the fire started in the boiler room of the two-story, 50-room structure from an unknown cause.

Say Finns Reject Latest Russ Terms

Stockholm, April 14 (AP)—Russia's modified terms for peace with Finland apparently have been rejected, Finnish sources here said Thursday after reports from Helsinki that parliament had given the government of Premier Edwin Linkomies a vote of confidence.

Linkomies had outlined the cabinet's stand on the largest Soviet armistice proposals at a secret session of Parliament, and informed Finns in Stockholm said these discussions were a "repeat performance" of those in mid-March when the original terms were refused.

There was no official word from Helsinki on what action was taken, but reports said the peace question "again was put back to the Russians."

Cabinet Sessions Throughout State

Harrisburg, April 14 (AP)—Governor Martin and his cabinet will meet in Erie, May 10, in what may be the first of a series of such meetings in various cities of the commonwealth.

All department heads will accompany the chief executive to northwest Pennsylvania and each one will hold conferences with local officials, representatives of business and labor and others for discussion of their particular problems.

"If the idea proves beneficial and creates interest in the state government," an administration spokesman explained today, "more meetings of the same kind will be held in other cities."

He added the main purpose of the visit to Erie will be "to create good will" and spur the commonwealth's war effort.

STATE OFFICER SCORES WMC'S STATE POLICY

Harrisburg, April 14 (AP) — The War Manpower Commission's handling of the U. S. Employment Service in Pennsylvania has been criticized by William H. Chesnut, state secretary of Industry and Labor, who in several letters to Manpower Commissioner Paul V. McNutt termed some of the WMC's programs a "waste of public funds."

Chesnut's latest letter to McNutt criticized the "waste of public funds" in the WMC's scrapping of registers, compiled by the Pennsylvania Civil Service Commission for filling employment service vacancies, and the setting up of new ones by the U. S. Civil Service Commission.

He also protested "the imposition of supernumeraries" over officials of the employment agency which he declared the commonwealth loaned to the federal government and is interested in it being returned "as a competent and workable" unit of Pennsylvania.

Chesnut said he was "reliably informed that the experienced director of the Pennsylvania employment service since 1939 and who has been in charge of the manpower program in Pennsylvania since Jan. 1, 1942, has, for no apparent reason, been demoted and subordinated to a former national administration employe of no experience in employment matters."

"I would like to know, have the manpower demands lessened or are these new NYA and WPA lame ducks excluded from the category of skilled workers," he said in referring to new appointments.

DODGERS WHIP PHILS 13 TO 11 FOR RED CROSS

New York, April 14 (AP)—Among the uncertainties surrounding wartime baseball, the fans can cling to one tried-and-true formula—the Dodgers are always the Dodgers.

Take for example the typical Dodgers doings of yesterday's Red Cross benefit game at Ebbets Field, in which Brooklyn triumphed over the Phillies, 13 to 11.

To start, ex-Dodger Fred Fitzsimmons, held his old team hitless for the first two innings in his first mound task since he became manager of the Phillies. That feat must have eased the divided loyalties of Hilda (the Bellringer) Chester, No. 1 Dodger fan and employe at Fitz's bowling alleys.

In the fifth Bill Hart and Stretch Schultz tried to occupy third base at the same time, with the result that they both were run down for a double play. Dixie Walker, an uncomfortable third baseman, rushed in for a pop fly in the sixth then pulled up and let it fall for a hit. And in the same inning, with two on base, Louis Olmo made a brilliant catch of a fly and then stood holding the ball, evidently thinking it was the third out, while two Phillies scampered home.

Olmo redeemed himself in the eighth when he belted a triple with two on base to tie the score and then stole home with the deciding run. And, as an added feature, Augie Galan, a switch hitter for more than ten years, batted left handed against southpaw Wilbur Reeser in the fourth and clouted a home run.

Other Developments

Philadelphia—Phillies purchased first-baseman Ulysses (Tony) Lupien from Red Sox as "insurance" at first in case it is necessary for Jimmy Wasdell to play in the outfield.

Cincinnati: Elmer Riddle slated to go full distance on mound today as Reds meet Cleveland.

St. Louis: Cards and Browns resume city series with Max Lanier and Bud Byerly pitching for Red Birds and Jack Kramer starting for Browns.

Chicago: Orval Grove and Hank Wyse opposing pitchers today as city series moves to Comiskey park for fourth game. American leaguers won 2-0 in ten innings yesterday.

New York Yankees: Spud Chandler, joining team until called for military service, tuned up his arm in batting practice and soon will be ready to take regular turn.

Philadelphia Athletics: Merely fattened batting averages against Buffalo but Lum Harris' three-hit pitching for seven innings looked good.

On Other Fields

New York Giants: Hard hitting, including homer by Hugh Luby, made them look better in first game at Polo Grounds than they did a year ago, despite licking by Yanks.

Detroit Tigers: Gloom over loss of J. P. Wood dispelled in part by news that shortstop Joe Hoover's draft status unsettled and he will be on hand for Tuesday's opener.

Boston: Braves and Red Sox play first of three-game series at Braves field with Al Javery opposing Emmet O'Neill on the mound.

HAEGG MAY RETURN

New York, April 14 (AP)—Gunder Haegg, the Swedish star whose tour of the United States was the big event of the 1943 track season, may return next summer accompanied by his countryman, Arne Andersson, holder of the world mile record. The Amateur Athletic Union has begun negotiations with Swedish athletic authorities to bring both runners here for the national outdoor championships at New York June 17 and 18.

BACKYARD FISHING

Caldwell, Idaho, April 14 (AP)—Members of the rod and gun club here don't propose to be deprived of their angling this year because of gasoline restrictions on pleasure driving—not if this plan works: The club has planted 25,000 trout in the Municipal park pond. Come August, they'll remove the fish to irrigation ditches which thread the town and surrounding area, then cast for them from their front lawns.

The prefix Mac attached to a name originally meant "son of."

Spectators Fete Big Jim Jeffries

Burbank, Calif., April 14 (AP)—Nine hundred spectators in Big Jim Jeffries boxing arena paid him tribute last night, his 69th birthday.

The former heavyweight champion of the world, from 1899 until his retirement in 1906, accepted a golden boxing glove mounted on a pedestal and autographed by many of his friends.

Ole Olson, stage and screen comedian, made the presentation, and Grace McDonald of the films placed a jewel-studded crown atop the former ring warrior's bald head, then kissed him.

Jim has lived in Burbank for 40 years. His arena is devoted to amateur boxing matches.

SPORTS ROUNDUP

By HUGH FULLERTON, JR.

New York, April 14 (AP)—Officials of the United States lawn tennis association are slightly perturbed because they've been able to dispose of only about 400 copies of their tennis lessons for boys and girls. . . Prexy Holcombe Ward figures that if the campaign to get tennis started in every high school and junior high in the country is to bear any fruit, the demand must increase sharply this spring. . . . The association sells four mimeographed "lessons," giving the fundamentals of stroke-making and strategy, for a dime. . . . Just by way of contrast, a query as to whether organized baseball offered any such service to beginners brought the reply from W. G. Bramham, the minor league headman, that many fine books on how to play baseball have been published but "to purchase them for general distribution throughout the country will be prohibitive from a cost standpoint."

TODAY'S GUEST STAR

Tim Cohane, New York World-Telegraph: "After visiting Alaska to entertain the troops, Dixie Walker thought he had seen his last of strange places for some time. And then Leo Durocher asked him to play third base.

ONE-MINUTE SPORTS PAGE

Al Schacht has quit the job of broadcasting the Yanks and Giants games after less than two weeks. The competition on the field must have been pretty strong.

A ROOKIE A DAY

Emil Verban, St. Louis Cardinals' second baseman—the Cards lost Lou Klein, but training camp reports say Verban will make the fans forget Lou. . . Emil was only a .257 hitter at Columbus, O., last season but played every inning of every game and showed plenty of speed.

SERVICE DEPT.

Lieut. Bob Shurilla, former Marquette U. hurdler is reported a prisoner in Germany after the flying fortress on which he was bombardier was brought down. . . Unless they have high fences around the camp, you probably can expect him back any day. . . Camp Croft, S. C., soldiers are wondering why the golf driving range hasn't been opened when three former pros, Sgt. Clayton Heafner, Corp. John Malesky and Pvt. Bryan are available to look after things. . . Ernie White, former Cards" hurler, picks PFC. Sam House of the Cherry Point, N. C., Marines as one of the best big league pitching prospects he ever has seen.

Fights Last Night

(By The Associated Press)

Boston — Jimmy Mulligan, Lowell, Mass., knocked out John Thomas of New York (1) (light heavyweights).

Highland Park, N. J. — Herbie Katz, 179, Brooklyn, stopped Joe (Butch) Lynch, 169½, Plainfield, N. J. (6).

WILL MISS DERBY

Mexico City, April 14 (AP)—The owners of Mexico's two Kentucky Derby entries, Seeing Eye and Don Jose H., announced today that because of lack of transportation the horses will not be taken to Churchill Downs. Done Jose H. is owned by Bruno Paglia of Mexico City, Ben Smith of New York and Jose Herrera of Venezuela and Seeing Eye by G. Z. Carranza.

HURLS ONE-HITTER

New Orleans, April 14 (AP)—Nineteen-year-old Dick Callahan, who has pitched two no-hit games for Holy Cross college this spring, almost did it again last night. He held the Samuel J. Peters' high school nine to one hit in a 12-inning contest which Holy Cross won 1 to 0. Callahan, who fanned 20 men during the game, sacrificed in the winning run in the twelfth inning.

FEW SOLDIER BALLOTS

Pittsburgh, April 14 (AP)—Only 1,400 applications—or less than two out of every 100 eligible voters among Allegheny county's 125,000 men and women in the armed forces—have been received for absentee ballots for the April 25 primary, county election director David Olbum reported.

HARRIS CLAIMS "RAIDING" MAY RUIN BASEBALL

Hershey, Pa., April 14 (AP) — Minor league baseball will survive another war year unless the major circuits raid the smaller loops to fill manpower gaps, Bucky Harris, manager of the Buffalo Bisons of the International league predicted today.

Back in the minors after 22 years as a big leaguer, the man who led Washington to its first world championship in 1924 and managed the Philadelphia Phillies part of last season, foresaw a banner year for the national pastime on the eve of another campaign.

"Give baseball some close pennant races and the crowds will turn out in full force," declared the Bison's pilot, "but if the major league clubs that own minor loop franchises raid their farm teams they will wreck baseball.

Teams Hard Hit

"The majors have been hard hit by stars going into service, especially the New York Yankees and the St. Louis Cardinals, but this will undoubtedly help the game since it tends to make the flag races that much closer.

"In the International loop we are counting on a compact race to keep interest at a high pitch, particularly in Rochester and Newark, two of the three clubs in our circuit that are owned outright by major league clubs," added Bucky.

During the past four weeks Harris has had 35 men working out at this resort training camp with 15 of his players listed as 4-F's and six holding army discharges.

New Emergency Rations Developed

Washington, April 14 (AP)—Navy scientists disclosed Thursday development of a new "candy-type," tablet-form emergency rations for life boats and rafts, and declared a day's allotment weighed half as much and was more palatable to thirsty men than present shipwreck rations of the Navy and Merchant Marine.

Designed to take up as little space as possible in an emergency craft and to furnish food that can be taken with a minimum of difficulty when the mouth is dry, the new ration consists of three different types of tablets:

One of sucrose (sugar) and citric acid to provide fruity components and promote the flow of saliva;

One of sucrose corn syrup, and citric acid, containing a butter scotch like material to provide buttery fat;

One of sucrose corn syrup and malted milk.

Neapolitan Cops Get Extra Rations

Naples, April 13 (AP)—Neapolitan policemen are receiving a bigger food ration to bolster their morale and keep them honest.

"If any are caught taking bribes now at least they won't be able to say they had to do that because they were hungry," said Lt. Col. Charles Poletti, AMG director here.

He explained one difficulty in smashing black markets was a continuation of some of the corruption of Fascism among the police.

Montreal Canadiens New Hockey Champs

Montreal, April 14 (AP)—Hector (Toe) Blake, veteran captain of the Montreal Canadiens' hockey club, had a new playoff scoring record today as a reward for leading his club to its first Stanley Cup triumph since 1931.

The Canadiens won the coveted world championship trophy last night by taking a 5 to 4 "sudden death" overtime decision from the Chicago Blackhawks to gain a clean sweep of the four games of the final playoff series.

And by scoring the winning goal after nine minutes and 12 seconds of overtime after setting up all four Canadien goals during the regulation 60 minutes, Blake bagged a scoring record for himself. The five points ran his total for two rounds of the playoffs to 18 points, surpassing the record set last Sunday by his teammate, Maurice Richard.

TROUT SEASON OPENS SATURDAY

Harrisburg, April 14 (AP)—Pennsylvania anglers readied their favorite rods today and hoped for a sunny Saturday opening of the 1944 trout season.

Fish Commissioner Charles A. French said "the last few days of clearing weather will help the trout fishermen," adding that he believes swollen western streams will return to normal level by tomorrow.

Trout streams in other parts of the state are already in good condition and there are plenty of legal brownies and rainbows, he declared.

The commission this spring stocked more than 1,000,000 trout from seven to 18 inches.

Wet fly and bait fishermen, because of recent chilling weather, stand the best chance to fill their creels but said that a warm sun will brighten the prospects for the dry fly angler.

Urges Preventive Steps Against Borer

Harrisburg, April 14 (AP)—Farmers and Victory gardeners of Pennsylvania were urged today to take immediate action to halt the damage by the European corn borer, which last summer damaged $1,000,000 worth of sweet corn in this state.

Miles Horst, secretary of agriculture, said "even greater losses could be expected next summer unless preventive steps" are taken now and added:

"Many Victory gardeners and farmers in the heavily infested southeastern and northeastern counties have met and will meet the April 15 deadline for burning and plowing under old corn stubble and stalks. All such work should be completed by tomorrow, and certainly not later than the end of next week."

Tanker Sunk With Loss Of 44 Crewmen

San Francisco, Apr. 14 (AP)—The torpedoing and sinking of the Standard Oil tanker H. D. Collier in the Arabian Sea a month ago with the loss of 44 officers and men was announced Wednesday by the 12th Naval District and the Standard Oil company.

Ten officers and men of the tanker and 16 members of the Navy armed guard were rescued.

Reported missing were 33 officers and men of the tankers' personnel and 11 members of the armed guard.

The missing included the ship's master, Capt. Joseph Fox, of Oakland, California.

MERMAIDS IN SWIM TOURNEY

Oakland, Calif., April 14 (AP)—with the pick of America's mermaids competing, the three-day National A.A.U. senior women's swimming and diving championships open today in the Athens club pool.

The trials start at 1:30 p. m. and the finals at 7:45 p. m.

Tonight's events will feature the 100-yard free style race, one-meter spring board diving and 300-yard individual medley. Marie Corridon, 14-year-old New Yorker and titlist of the 100-yard metropolitan free style in 1:03.6, and San Francisco's 18-year-old Ann Curtis are the top favorites in the sprint event.

Anne K. Ross, 20, Brooklyn, is defending champion in the one and three meter diving, while Nancy Merki, 17-year-old title holder of the Multnomah club, Portland, Ore., is the western favorite in the 300-yard medley.

With Gov. John Bricker, Ohio's presidential candidate, in attendance, the 400-yard free style relay, 100-yard backstroke, 220-yard breast stroke and 440-yard free style finals will be held Saturday night. Elimination events are being staged in the afternoons.

The Sunday card includes the 100-yard breast stroke 3-meter spring board diving, 220-yard free style and 300-yard medley relay.

8 PERISH IN FIRE

Lawrence, Kas., April 14 (AP)—Eight inmates perished in a fire which destroyed the Douglas county home for indigents Thurs. Twenty-nine others escaped without injury. Caretake George Hoskinson said the fire started in the boiler room of the two-story, 50-room structure from an unknown cause.

Say Finns Reject Latest Russ Terms

Stockholm, April 14 (AP)—Russia's modified terms for peace with Finland apparently have been rejected, Finnish sources here said Thursday after reports from Helsinki that parliament had given the government of Premier Edwin Linkomies a vote of confidence.

Linkomies had outlined the cabinet's stand on the largest Soviet armistice proposals at a secret session of Parliament, and informed Finns in Stockholm said these discussions were a "repeat performance" of those in mid-March when the original terms were refused.

There was no official word from Helsinki on what action was taken, but reports said the peace question "again was put back to the Russians."

Cabinet Sessions Throughout State

Harrisburg, April 14 (AP)—Governor Martin and his cabinet will meet in Erie, May 10, in what may be the first of a series of such meetings in various cities of the commonwealth.

All department heads will accompany the chief executive to northwest Pennsylvania and each one will hold conferences with local officials, representatives of business and labor and others for discussion of their particular problems.

"If the idea proves beneficial and creates interest in the state government," an administration spokesman explained today, "more meetings of the same kind will be held in other cities."

He added the main purpose of the visit to Erie will be "to create good will" and spur the commonwealth's war effort.

STATE OFFICER SCORES WMC'S STATE POLICY

Harrisburg, April 14 (AP) — The War Manpower Commission's handling of the U. S. Employment Service in Pennsylvania has been criticized by William H. Chesnut, state secretary of Industry and Labor, who in several letters to Manpower Commissioner Paul V. McNutt termed some of the WMC's programs a "waste of public funds."

Chesnut's latest letter to McNutt criticized the "waste of public funds" in the WMC's scrapping of registers, compiled by the Pennsylvania Civil Service Commission for filling employment service vacancies, and the setting up of new ones by the U. S. Civil Service Commission.

He also protested "the imposition of supernumeraries" over officials of the employment agency which he declared the commonwealth loaned to the federal government and is interested in it being returned "as a competent and workable" unit of Pennsylvania.

Chesnut said he was "reliably informed that the experienced director of the Pennsylvania employment service since 1939 and who has been in charge of the manpower program in Pennsylvania since Jan. 1, 1942, has, for no apparent reason, been demoted and subordinated to a former national administration employe of no experience in employment matters."

"I would like to know, have the manpower demands lessened or are these new NYA and WPA lame ducks excluded from the category of skilled workers," he said in referring to new appointments.

An Evening Thought

Just Folks

TO THE SHOWER BATH

Uncertain friend, give up I must,
Since you I can no longer trust!
Unto no steadfast plan you hold;
You blow too hot or blow too cold!
Henceforth when happily I'd scrub,
I'll use the good old-fashioned tub.

Proud, chief adornment of the home,
Encased in glass and framed in chrome,
Though beautiful you are to see,
You're just a source of grief to me!
When I have stepped beneath your spout, ...
With fiendish glee you drive me out.

Man's fairest friend you have been called,
But when did friendship freeze and scald,
Dribble and gush, play loose and fast,
Be fickle to the very last
And make its devotees retire
With furious bursts of frost and fire?

These feeble lines to him are penned
Who first thought hot and cold would blend;
Who vowed that dials he could fix
So these two opposites would mix,
That chap forever I'd consign
To use that faithless shower of mine!

Today's Talk

GOD'S LURKING PLACES

All great scientists and naturalists have been devout religious men and women. Forever discovering wonders and delving into mysteries, they have come to see the creative Mind in all its splendor.

Take this one sentence from Thoreau's Journal of 1851, when Thoreau was but 34 years of age: "My profession," he said, "is to be always on the alert to find God in nature, to know his lurking-places, to attend all the oratorios, the operas, in nature."

But God doesn't just hide. He's there—wherever any of his creations are located. But eyes are essential to see him — searching eyes, appreciative eyes, and understanding eyes. During every Springtime God is especially astir. His lurking place is wherever there is movement, beauty, and wonder.

I sit in my library and hear the voices of men and women across the seas, and I sit in wonder and astonishment. Men have discovered secrets about the very air, and God has arranged to let them use it to bring news, comfort, and hope, instantly from all over the earth that he long ago created.

The telephone is as great a wonder to me today as when I listened to a distant voice but a few blocks away, coming clearly over wires. In the most delicate of snowflakes, in the formations of ferns and the leaves of the various trees, and in the color of every flower, and in the very fragrance of the air, God lurks.

Even in tears a semblance of God is to be seen. You recall the two-word sentence in the Bible where it states, "Jesus wept." And in the laughter of a child God is sensed. He lurks wherever joy is supreme, and where trouble and sorrow abide as well.

I have sat of an evening at my small island home in Nova Scotia, and listened to the breath of the wind—listened to its whispers among the trees, and as it gently stirred the surface of the waters of the lake—and I have said to myself that God lurked there too. As he does everywhere.

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject "This Day."

Drake Keeps Vigil Over Mate's Body

Chicago, April 14 (AP)—A Mallard duck, apparently the victim of a hit-and-run automobile drive in Grant Park, near Lake Michigan, was guarded in death Wednesday by its live mate.

Hundreds of motorists saw the male bird constantly circle around the dead duck, as if waiting for it to rise and continue their migration northward.

Passersby, noting the vigil being kept by the drake, did not frighten him away.

DOPESTERS EYE NEW ENGLAND'S GOP DELEGATES

By GARDNER BRIDGE
Associated Press Staff Writer

Some indication of who is going to inherit the New England following that had been generally conceded to Wendell L. Willkie may come today when Maine and Connecticut choose their delegates to the Republican national convention.

Willkie himself has made no public devise since dropping out of the running, and the activity in one of his former political strongholds took on fresh piquancy with the sudden resurgence of a draft-MacArthur-for-President movement.

"Number of Good Men"

Connecticut, first state to vote solidly for Willkie four years ago, names 16 delegates today but they probably will go to the Chicago convention without instructions. And the field was left wide open when House Minority Leader Joseph W. Martin of Massachusetts told them last night that the Republican party has "a number of good men" qualified for the presidency.

Maine Republicans choose the first six of their 13 delegates after hearing their convention chairman, Rep. Margaret C. Smith, warn against permitting "the glamor of apparent victory to blind us." Maine also was strong for Willkie in 1940.

In Other States

Meanwhile President Roosevelt appeared likely to pick up some more fourth term support at a scheduled meeting today of Michigan Democrats, who will name convention delegates holding 38 votes.

Democrats gathered also in Minnesota, where they were expected to merge with Farmer Laborites preparatory to selecting 24 delegates to the Democratic national convention tomorrow.

Tomorrow will be another busy day for the Republicans, with Arizona picking eight delegates, Idaho 11 and Virginia completing its slate of 19. Iowa Democrats will name a fourth term delegation with 20 votes the same day.

LOFTUS TO MOVE

Harrisburg, April 14 (AP)—District OPA headquarters announced Tuesday that Frank Loftus, director here since February 2, would succeed Raymond F. Ashenfelter as director of the Philadelphia district office when Ashenfelter's resignation becomes effective April 30.

RAID WARDEN KILLED BY CAR IN BLACKOUT

(By The Associated Press)

Tragedy marked Pennsylvania's first practice blackout since January when Henry Coady, 67, father of 14 children, was instantly killed by an automobile at Bellwood, near Altoona, last night while performing his duties as an air raid warden.

Dr. Daniel Replogle, Blair county coroner, said the vehicle was driven by a soldier who said he was unaware of the air raid test.

Coady, crossing the darkened street, attempted to avoid the car, Dr. Replogle said, but a fender struck him and hurled him through the windshield.

Directors of Pennsylvania's defense system agreed today, after appraising the results of last night's test, that observance in most of the state's cities and towns was good.

Called By Army

The state council of defense said the test was called by the Army. Philadelphia and Pittsburgh reported a difference in the time the signals were received. The first blue sounded in Philadelphia at 9:51 p. m. and in Pittsburgh at 9:58 p. m. The all clear was sounded throughout the state at 10:27 p. m.

An unofficial report to the State council from Lancaster said the observance was good despite the surprise element. Reports from Harrisburg indicated that the test was a success there, too.

In Waynesboro, where officials earlier in the year declined to participate in the tests but later agreed to cooperate, defense commander Ralph B. Whisler said there was "almost 100 per cent turnout" of civilian defense volunteers.

An Evening Thought

Just Folks

TO THE SHOWER BATH

Uncertain friend, give up I must,
Since you I can no longer trust!
Unto no steadfast plan you hold;
You blow too hot or blow too cold!
Henceforth when happily I'd scrub,
I'll use the good old-fashioned tub.

Proud, chief adornment of the home,
Encased in glass and framed in chrome,
Though beautiful you are to see,
You're just a source of grief to me!
When I have stepped beneath your spout,
With fiendish glee you drive me out.

Man's fairest friend you have been called,
But when did friendship freeze and scald,
Dribble and gush, play loose and fast,
Be fickle to the very last
And make its devotees retire
With furious bursts of frost and fire?

These feeble lines to him are penned
Who first thought hot and cold would blend;
Who vowed that dials he could fix
So these two opposites would mix,
That chap forever I'd consign
To use that faithless shower of mine!

Today's Talk

GOD'S LURKING PLACES

All great scientists and naturalists have been devout religious men and women. Forever discovering wonders and delving into mysteries, they have come to see the creative Mind in all its splendor.

Take this one sentence from Thoreau's Journal of 1851, when Thoreau was but 34 years of age: "My profession," he said, "is to be always on the alert to find God in nature, to know his lurking-places, to attend all the oratorios, the operas, in nature."

But God doesn't just hide. He's there—wherever any of his creations are located. But eyes are essential to see him — searching eyes, appreciative eyes, and understanding eyes. During every Springtime God is especially astir. His lurking place is wherever there is movement, beauty, and wonder.

I sit in my library and hear the voices of men and women across the seas, and I sit in wonder and astonishment. Men have discovered secrets about the very air, and God has arranged to let them use it to bring news, comfort, and hope, instantly from all over the earth that he long ago created.

The telephone is as great a wonder to me today as when I listened to a distant voice but a few blocks away, coming clearly over wires. In the most delicate of snowflakes, in the formations of ferns and the leaves of the various trees, and in the color of every flower, and in the very fragrance of the air, God lurks.

Even in tears a semblance of God is to be seen. You recall the two-word sentence in the Bible where it states, "Jesus wept." And in the laughter of a child God is sensed. He lurks wherever joy is supreme, and where trouble and sorrow abide as well.

I have sat of an evening at my small island home in Nova Scotia, and listened to the breath of the wind—listened to its whispers among the trees, and as it gently stirred the surface of the waters of the lake—and I have said to myself that God lurked there too. As he does everywhere.

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject "This Day."

Drake Keeps Vigil Over Mate's Body

Chicago, April 14 (AP)—A Mallard duck, apparently the victim of a hit-and-run automobile drive in Grant Park, near Lake Michigan, was guarded in death Wednesday by its live mate.

Hundreds of motorists saw the male bird constantly circle around the dead duck, as if waiting for it to rise and continue their migration northward.

Passersby, noting the vigil being kept by the drake, did not frighten him away.

DOPESTERS EYE NEW ENGLAND'S GOP DELEGATES

By GARDNER BRIDGE
Associated Press Staff Writer

Some indication of who is going to inherit the New England following that had been generally conceded to Wendell L. Willkie may come today when Maine and Connecticut choose their delegates to the Republican national convention.

Willkie himself has made no public devise since dropping out of the running, and the activity in one of his former political strongholds took on fresh piquancy with the sudden resurgence of a draft-MacArthur-for-President movement.

"Number of Good Men"

Connecticut, first state to vote solidly for Willkie four years ago, names 16 delegates today but they probably will go to the Chicago convention without instructions. And the field was left wide open when House Minority Leader Joseph W. Martin of Massachusetts told them last night that the Republican party has "a number of good men" qualified for the presidency.

Maine Republicans choose the first six of their 13 delegates after hearing their convention chairman, Rep. Margaret C. Smith, warn against permitting "the glamor of apparent victory to blind us." Maine also was strong for Willkie in 1940.

In Other States

Meanwhile President Roosevelt appeared likely to pick up some more fourth term support at a scheduled meeting today of Michigan Democrats, who will name convention delegates holding 38 votes.

Democrats gathered also in Minnesota, where they were expected to merge with Farmer Laborites preparatory to selecting 24 delegates to the Democratic national convention tomorrow.

Tomorrow will be another busy day for the Republicans, with Arizona picking eight delegates, Idaho 11 and Virginia completing its slate of 19. Iowa Democrats will name a fourth term delegation with 20 votes the same day.

LOFTUS TO MOVE

Harrisburg, April 14 (AP)—District OPA headquarters announced Tuesday that Frank Loftus, director here since February 2, would succeed Raymond F. Ashenfelter as director of the Philadelphia district office when Ashenfelter's resignation becomes effective April 30.

RAID WARDEN KILLED BY CAR IN BLACKOUT

(By The Associated Press)

Tragedy marked Pennsylvania's first practice blackout since January when Henry Coady, 67, father of 14 children, was instantly killed by an automobile at Bellwood, near Altoona, last night while performing his duties as an air raid warden.

Dr. Daniel Replogle, Blair county coroner, said the vehicle was driven by a soldier who said he was unaware of the air raid test.

Coady, crossing the darkened street, attempted to avoid the car, Dr. Replogle said, but a fender struck him and hurled him through the windshield.

Directors of Pennsylvania's defense system agreed today, after appraising the results of last night's test, that observance in most of the state's cities and towns was good.

Called By Army

The state council of defense said the test was called by the Army. Philadelphia and Pittsburgh reported a difference in the time the signals were received. The first blue sounded in Philadelphia at 9:51 p. m. and in Pittsburgh at 9:58 p. m. The all clear was sounded throughout the state at 10:27 p. m.

An unofficial report to the State council from Lancaster said the observance was good despite the surprise element. Reports from Harrisburg indicated that the test was a success there, too.

In Waynesboro, where officials earlier in the year declined to participate in the tests but later agreed to cooperate, defense commander Ralph B. Whisler said there was "almost 100 per cent turnout" of civilian defense volunteers.

IN MEMORIAM

In memory of our dear husband and father, J. Melvin Warren, who departed this life one year ago today, April 14, 1943.

Just one year ago today.
God called our loved one and he went away;
He has wondered into an unknown land,
Where peace and comfort go hand in hand.
We feel no right to wonder why.
He heard a call that passed us by;
We dare not question and want to know,
But our homes are lonely and we miss him so.
We think of him faring on as dear,
In the love of there as the love of here.
Perhaps some day we'll know the reason,
In time we hope to understand:
Meanwhile he's waiting for us,
O'er the hills in that promised land

Sadly missed by his wife, children, and grandchildren.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to thank all friends and neighbors for their kindness and sympathy shown during the illness and death of our father, Mr. Ernest H. Stottler, and also for the lovely flowers. By his family.

ESCAPE from PARIS

Chapter 23

It seemed to Adrienne that an eternity had passed since she had been confined in the small room to which she had been taken.

The only break in the monotony had been provided by the appearance of Stieber with a tray containing a bowl of soup, with hamburger, potatoes and bread. Adrienne tried to eat but discovered she was not hungry. Her only hope she knew lay in the remote chance of Herr Schafer relenting in his attitude towards her.

Suddenly she was aroused from her thoughts by a key turning in the lock

"You will come with me," a guard said abruptly. "You are to be released."

Incredulous with relief and joy she rose to her feet and followed him into the corridor and down the stairs. What could it mean? She realized she would still be under the observation of the Gestapo, and wondered if setting her free was a part of the game they were playing in seeking to trap her. Passing through the main entrance she saw the car which had brought her there was again waiting with the same driver at the wheel

"What address?" inquired Stieber.

She gave the address on the Rue du Vaugirard

Adrienne pushed the button opposite apartment 17 on the lobby of the Bellevue Apartments. She had just discovered a letter in Madame Dupont's post box addressed to herself in Johnny's handwriting, and her heart beat quickened with excitement and happiness.

Once inside the apartment she tore open the envelope. It bore a Portuguese stamp and was written in French.

Dearest Adrienne:

Thought you do not hear from me, please believe you are constantly in my thoughts. My life is filled with duties as you know and there is little time for writing letters. Take care of yourself. You must realize what you mean to me. You have my address. Do not fail to let me know how you are getting along. I am a poor correspondent, darling, but you can read between the lines.

With all my love,

John.

She read it a second time, and a third time. He was evidently back in the Air Force, and had managed to have the letter mailed from Portugal. Relief and happiness went through her.

Suddenly a ring at the door bell startled her. It was the concierge, Jean Cortet. He was inclined to take too active an interest in other people's affairs, and she did not trust his professions of dislike for the Nazis. Provided they made it worth his while, she was certain he would serve their interests. She was considerably surprised when he thrust a small neatly wrapped package into her hand.

"Parcel for you M'amselle, left by the servant of the German Kapitan."

There must be some mistake. The Kapitan is not likely to send me a parcel."

"Present, most likely, M'amselle." A cunning gleam came into the old man's eyes.

She thanked him, and shut the door quickly. Hastily she drew off the blue wrapping paper to reveal a blue velvet case. Inside the case was a sunburst pendant of diamonds set in platinum ,suspended on a fine platinum chain. The case bore the name of one of the city's most exclusive jewellers. On another card in small hand writing was: "Hoping you will accept this token of my regard for you."

Karl Frederick Von Egert.

Adrienne stood for a moment, motionless Her admiration of the lovely jewel was submerged in the tumult of feeling raging within her.

Glancing at the clock on the mantel, she saw the hands pointed to four o'clock. She seated herself at Madame Dupont's secretary in the living room, and taking a pen and sheet of note paper, wrote. Dear Kapitan Von Egert:

Perhaps you do not realize that it is impossible for me to accept from you so valuable a gift. I hope you will understand the motives which force me to return it, and pardon the seeming lack of courtesy in my action.

Sincerely yours,
Adrienne Girard.

She addressed the envelope, sealed it, and putting another wrapper on the package with the Kapitan's name, slipped both note and package into her handbag. Then she hurried down the stairway leading to the front entrance.

It had rained in the morning and the sky was still overcast. A fine mist enveloped the atmosphere. Adrienne decided to take the Metro, and went her steps to the nearest station.

Getting out at a station on the Rue de Rivoli, she walked toward the Continental Hotel. Her intention was to leave the package and the letter at the hotel desk to be delivered to Von Egert, but fate intervened. She had barely reached the desk when a voice at her side addressed her.

"Bon jour Adrienne." Looking up she saw Von Egert confronting her with a questioning smile in his eyes. "This is a pleasant surprise to see you here."

"It is agreeable to get surprises at times," she rejoined, "or is it?"

"I find this one agreeable at least," he remarked. "I was just going out, so luck is with me that you came when you did."

"I came to deliver a note Herr Kapitan for yourself." She opened her bag and put it in his hand.

"There is no occasion for a note now that you are here," he said, seemingly amused "Shall I read it now?"

She hesitated, feeling embarrassed and annoyed at the turn events had taken, then said, "Please do."

He held the note to the light, opened the envelop and read it.

"You wish to return my gift Adrienne? That seems to me very foolish and unnecessary. Suppose you come up to my private sitting room where we can talk it over, while we have a cigarette."

"What address?" inquired Stieber.

She gave the address on the Rue du Vaugirard.

Adrienne pushed the button opposite apartment 17 on the lobby of the Bellevue Apartments. She had just discovered a letter in Madame Dupont's post box addressed to herself in Johnny's handwriting, and her heart beat quickened with excitement and happiness.

Once inside the apartment she tore open the envelope. It bore a Portuguese stamp and was written in French.

Dearest Adrienne:

Thought you do not hear from me, please believe you are constantly in my thoughts. My life is filled with duties as you know and there is little time for writing letters. Take care of yourself. You must realize what you mean to me. You have my address. Do not fail to let me know how you are getting along. I am a poor correspondent, darling, but you can read between the lines.

With all my love,
John.

She read it a second time, and a third time. He was evidently back in the Air Force, and had managed to have the letter mailed from Portugal. Relief and happiness went through her.

Suddenly a ring at the door bell startled her. It was the concierge, Jean Cortet. He was inclined to take too active an interest in other people's affairs, and she did not trust his professions of dislike for the Nazis. Provided they made it worth his while, she was certain he would serve their interests. She was considerably surprised when he thrust a small neatly wrapped package into her hand.

"Parcel for you M'amselle, left by the servant of the German Kapitan."

There must be some mistake. The Kapitan is not likely to send me a parcel."

"Present, most likely, M'amselle." A cunning gleam came into the old man's eyes.

She thanked him, and shut the door quickly. Hastily she drew off the blue wrapping paper to reveal a blue velvet case. Inside the case was a sunburst pendant of diamonds set in platinum ,suspended on a fine platinum chain. The case bore the name of one of the city's most exclusive jewellers. On another card in small hand writing was: "Hoping you will accept this token of my regard for you."

Karl Frederick Von Egert.

Adrienne stood for a moment, motionless. Her admiration of the lovely jewel was submerged in the tumult of feeling raging within her.

Glancing at the clock on the mantel, she saw the hands pointed to four o'clock. She seated herself at Madame Dupont's secretary in the living room, and taking a pen and sheet of note paper, wrote: Dear Kapitan Von Egert:

Perhaps you do not realize that it is impossible for me to accept from you so valuable a gift. I hope you will understand the motives which force me to return it, and pardon the seeming lack of courtesy in my action.

Sincerely yours,
Adrienne Girard.

She addressed the envelope, sealed it, and putting another wrapper on the package with the Kapitan's name, slipped both note and package into her handbag. Then she hurried down the stairway leading to the front entrance.

It had rained in the morning and the sky was still overcast. A fine mist enveloped the atmosphere. Adrienne decided to take the Metro, and went her steps to the nearest station.

Getting out at a station on the Rue de Rivoli, she walked toward the Continental Hotel. Her intention was to leave the package and the letter at the hotel desk to be delivered to Von Egert, but fate intervened. She had barely reached the desk when a voice at her side addressed her.

"Bon jour Adrienne." Looking up she saw Von Egert confronting her with a questioning smile in his eyes. "This is a pleasant surprise to see you here."

"It is agreeable to get surprises at times," she rejoined, "or is it?"

"I find this one agreeable at least," he remarked. "I was just going out, so luck is with me that you came when you did."

"I came to deliver a note Herr Kapitan for yourself." She opened her bag and put it in his hand.

"There is no occasion for a note now that you are here," he said, seemingly amused. "Shall I read it now?"

She hesitated, feeling embarrassed and annoyed at the turn events had taken, then said, "Please do."

He held the note to the light, opened the envelop and read it.

"You wish to return my gift, Adrienne? That seems to me very foolish and unnecessary. Suppose you come up to my private sitting room where we can talk it over, while we have a cigarette."

SMASH JAPS' SHIPS, PLANES AT HOLLANDIA

By RICHARD C. BERGHOLZ
Associated Press War Editor

The ships and planes with which Japan hoped to revive its smashed defenses at Hollandia, Dutch New Guinea, were left burning and battered after a massive coordinated air attack Wednesday, Allied headquarters in the southeast Pacific reported today.

At least one freighter was sunk in Hollandia harbor and nine other small craft were left burning and sinking after the fifth airforce pilots had pinpointed their target with one of the heaviest bomb loads in the New Guinea campaign.

Of the 20 Japanese planes that bravely rose to intercept the 200-plane Allied force, eight were shot down—two by the guns of the Lightning fighter piloted by America's No. 1 ace, Major Richard I. Bong, Poplar, Wis. The two victims raised Bong's total to 27, highest in American history.

Drop 1334 Tons

During the past two weeks, Allied airmen have smashed Hollandia with 1,334 tons of bombs and destroyed its reinforced air force of 288 planes.

Other air war reports told of American bomber attacks ranging from Koepang, Dutch Timor, which is west of Darwin, Australia, to Truk in the eastern Caroline islands, with way stops at such targets as Wewak, Hansa Bay and Madang, New Guinea, Rabaul, New Britain, Kavieng, New Ireland, and Bougainville Island in the Solomons.

Four targets in the Kurile islands north of Japan were raked by 11th airforce planes including the third attack in three days on Matsuwa Island.

Allied headquarters in India were admonished by the British owned Bombay Times to stop concealing the full picture of the Japanese offensive into India aimed at the Bengal-Assam railroad and to stop treating the public "as if it is incapable of appreciating the military situation."

Pittsburgh, April 14 (AP)—Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt will make her second visit to Pittsburgh within three months when she speaks on May 10 before the Rotary club's annual ladies' meeting.

Raps President's Foreign Policy

Pittsburgh, April 14 (AP)—Senator Kenneth S. Wherry (R-Neb) maintains that the outstanding domestic issue of the coming presidential campaign is the "question of the survival of our constitutional form of representative government."

"Under the present administration," he told the ward chairmen members of the Republican 32 club here last night, "centralization of bureaucratic power has all but destroyed checks and balances in government."

In a criticism of the "failures of the foreign policy of President Roosevelt," he pointed out that in his estimation it is the administration's "responsibility" to provide the country with an "understandable foreign policy."

He cited the declaration of principles as written by the Republican party at Mackinac as "the foremost instrument that has been advanced today about the foreign policy to which the United States is now committed."

Sees Overnight To London Flight

Pittsburgh, April 14 (AP)—Planes capable of flying from New York to London overnight will revolutionize air travel in the post-war world, V. P. Conroy, traffic vice president of Transcontinental and Western Air, Inc., told the rotary club.

Of such size and speed as to be capable of "creating a whole new world in the air age to follow the end of the war," the planes are built right now, he said yesterday, describing the 57-passenger Lockheed constellation, now is use as a military transport.

SMASH JAPS' SHIPS, PLANES AT HOLLANDIA

By RICHARD C. BERGHOLZ
Associated Press War Editor

The ships and planes with which Japan hoped to revive its smashed defenses at Hollandia, Dutch New Guinea, were left burning and battered after a massive coordinated air attack Wednesday, Allied headquarters in the southeast Pacific reported today.

At least one freighter was sunk in Hollandia harbor and nine other small craft were left burning and sinking after the fifth airforce pilots had pinpointed their target with one of the heaviest bomb loads in the New Guinea campaign.

Of the 20 Japanese planes that bravely rose to intercept the 200-plane Allied force, eight were shot down—two by the guns of the Lightning fighter piloted by America's No. 1 ace, Major Richard I. Bong, Poplar, Wis. The two victims raised Bong's total to 27, highest in American history.

Drop 1334 Tons

During the past two weeks, Allied airmen have smashed Hollandia with 1,334 tons of bombs and destroyed its reinforced air force of 288 planes.

Other air war reports told of American bomber attacks ranging from Koepang, Dutch Timor, which is west of Darwin, Australia, to Truk in the eastern Caroline islands, with way stops at such targets as Wewak, Hansa Bay and Madang, New Guinea, Rabaul, New Britain, Kavieng, New Ireland, and Bougainville Island in the Solomons.

Four targets in the Kurile islands north of Japan were raked by 11th airforce planes including the third attack in three days on Matsuwa Island.

Allied headquarters in India were admonished by the British owned Bombay Times to stop concealing the full picture of the Japanese offensive into India aimed at the Bengal-Assam railroad and to stop treating the public "as if it is incapable of appreciating the military situation."

Pittsburgh, April 14 (AP)—Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt will make her second visit to Pittsburgh within three months when she speaks on May 10 before the Rotary club's annual ladies' meeting.

TRACTORS AND FARM EQUIPMENT

Raps President's Foreign Policy

Pittsburgh, April 14 (AP)—Senator Kenneth S. Wherry (R-Neb) maintains that the outstanding domestic issue of the coming presidential campaign is the "question of the survival of our constitutional form of representative government."

"Under the present administration," he told the ward chairmen members of the Republican 32 club here last night, "centralization of bureaucratic power has all but destroyed checks and balances in government."

In a criticism of the "failures of the foreign policy of President Roosevelt," he pointed out that in his estimation it is the administration's "responsibility" to provide the country with an "understandable foreign policy."

He cited the declaration of principles as written by the Republican party at Mackinac as "the foremost instrument that has been advanced today about the foreign policy to which the United States is now committed."

40 GOVERNORS TO COME HERE MEMORIAL DAY

Governors Thomas E. Dewey, of New York, John W. Bricker, of Ohio, and Earl Warren, of California, the three governors most prominently mentioned for the Republican nomination for president, will be among the 40 or more governors who will come to Gettysburg for the Memorial Day program on May 30.

Only a few of the governors will be unable to attend the conference in Harrisburg May 28-31. They include Ernest H. Gruening, of Alaska; Walter S. Goodland, of Wisconsin; Ingram M. Stainback, of Hawaii; Rexford Guy Tugwell, of Puerto Rico, and Coke R. Stevenson, of Texas.

Expect 40 Governors

At least 40 governors will be here for the occasion.

The governors are due to arrive in Gettysburg about 2:30 o'clock. They will attend a buffet luncheon at the executive mansion in Harrisburg after an executive session in the state capital. This will follow breakfast at the state capital cafeteria.

Immediately after the luncheon the governors will leave for Gettysburg. Each car will have a special license plate and the order of the motor caravan will be according to the time of entry into the Union by each state. Pennsylvania will be third in line. A state trooper will be the chauffeur for each car.

Arriving at Gettysburg the governors will go to the cemetery to witness the strewing of flowers on the graves by school children. The exercises at the rostrum will follow.

Governor Leverett Saltonstall, of Massachusetts, will speak "for the North" and Governor E. Melville Broughton, of North Carolina, will speak "for the South."

There will be a battery of photographers and newspaper men, including newsreel crews to cover the program here. A coast-to-coast hookup will broadcast the program.

Following the program in the cemetery the governors will be escorted on a visit to the memorial or marker representing his state on the Battlefield. They will re-assemble at Bloody Angle where Dr. J. Walter Coleman, superintendent of the Battlefield, will give a brief description of the battle.

The governors will then return to Harrisburg for a state dinner at the Penn-Harris hotel.

BRONZE MEDAL IS AWARDED TO CPL. D. B. STOOPS

Cpl. Daniel B. Stoops is among the first members of the U.S. army in the Italian theater to receive the Bronze Star medal, a new decoration recently authorized by Congress, it was learned Monday.

In a letter to his wife at her home, in Gettysburg, Corporal Stoops enclosed a copy of the citation he received awarding him the Bronze Star medal the first of which, according to news reports, were presented in the Italian theater of war Saturday.

It is not known at present whether Corporal Stoops received the medal at that time. In his letter to his wife he said that while he had been given the citation awarding him the medal, the medal itself would be given "in the near future." The letter was sent about two weeks ago.

Official Citation

The citation to Corporal Stoops reads in part, "In the field, March 16, . . . you are awarded the Bronze Star Medal for meritorious service in direct support of combat operations with counter-battery section 11 corps from 17 November, 1943, to 25 February, 1944. Corporal Stoops performed in a meritorious manner, the duty of file clerk, . . . assigned as a draughtsman and later took over, in addition, the duties of file clerk. Through perseverance and attention to duty, . . . Stoops aided in the establishment of a system of filing hostile battery information. He, on his own initiative, suggested changes in the procedure that greatly aided the efficiency of record keeping. By working long hours under difficult conditions he kept up-to-date information available at all times for the use of the counter-battery officers in delivering fire on enemy artillery. He also trained, during combat operations, other clerks to carry on the work in an efficient and accurate manner. The material contained in the files . . . became the basis of counter-battery fire and in many critical instances furnished the necessary information to enable the counter-battery officer to place accurate fire on enemy batteries."

Cpl. Stoops, who was employed at the Landis Tool company at Waynesboro before entering service, has been overseas 15 months.

He entered military service from Chambersburg three years ago and was attached to the field artillery. He landed in Africa December 26, 1942 and then went to Sicily in July. He has been in Italy since October.

TRIBUTE TO HERO EASTER SUNDAY

Tribute was paid to the memory of Pvt. Eugene William Shelleman, 23-year-old father, East Berlin R. Elmer Drumm, pastor, conducted the service, assisted by the Rev. J. Harold Little, Hanover. The memorial service followed the Easter Communion service scheduled for 10:30 o'clock.

Pvt. Shelleman, a son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis E. Shelleman, East Berlin R. D. 2, husband of Mrs. Dorothy Kider Shelleman, York Springs, and father of Eugene Shelleman, Jr., was reported by the War Department, last July, as being missing in action in the Southwest Pacific since July 2. In December, his parents were notified that it had been determined that he was killed in action at a date unreported.

Pvt. Shelleman, an infantryman, entered the service on May 1, 1942, being inducted by Adams county Draft Board No. 1, New Oxford. He was stationed at Camp Shelby, Miss., and Fort Ord, Calif., before going over seas. Prior to his entry into the service, he was employed on a farm of Guy R. Goodfellow, Hanover.

Prefers Farm To London

(Special to The Times)

Cpl. Miller is an assistant in the supply section of this headquarters. He entered the service in August, 1943. His wife, Ruth, is taking care of the farm during the corporal's absence.

POLICE SOLVE TWO HIT-RUN CRASHES TODAY

Private Harold Sheads proved Monday that "a home town boy" with the "assistance of a little luck" can solve hit and run accidents on the county's highways.

Private Sheads, Gettysburg, who was transferred to the Gettysburg sub-station of the state motor police, April 1, after eight years at various other stations in this area, started the investigation of one hit and run accident Sunday evening. This morning he was called to investigate another hit and run collision. Both occurred on the Gettysburg-Emmitsburg road about three miles apart.

By noon Monday both of the hit and run drivers had been apprehended.

The first accident occurred at 10:25 o'clock Sunday evening at the Peach Orchard when a car sideswiped an auto driven by Miss Vonalea M. Farling, Elizabethtown. She was driving north, when a car going south got too far across the center of the highway and hit her vehicle. After the accident the other car continued.

Driver Is Jailed

Monday morning Pvt. Sheads was driving from the scene of the accident towards Gettysburg when he saw a car headed south with a damaged fender and a missing hub cap. A few minutes later Hans Gellings, Bay Shore, New York, was charged before Justice of the Peace Robert P. Snyder with failure to stop at the scene of an accident. In default of $500 bond he was committed to the county jail. Later he posted $500 bond to appear in April court. Gellings told Officer Sheads he stayed in Gettysburg overnight. Sunday night he decided to go for a ride before retiring. Enroute he "hit something" he said, became excited, he claimed, and continued on. Monday he was headed back to the scene to find his missing hub cap when he was nabbed. Total damage was $45. No one was injured.

The second accident occurred at about 2 a. m. Monday when a machine sideswiped the car of Charles Donald Rebert, of Gettysburg, which was parked in front of the Rebert home. Later Monday morning, Private Sheads secured from Pvt. Richard Fiscel, of Gettysburg R. 2, home on furlough from an Army camp in Arkansas, the admission that he had hit Rebert's car.

No charges were filed against Fiscel with information about the accident forwarded to his commanding officer for appropriate action upon his return to camp. Total damage was about $35. No one was injured.

Navy Officer Will Speak This Friday

Representatives of the Army, USO, American Legion and Veterans of Foreign wars will also be at the meeting to explain and answer questions on the functions and facilities offered by their organizations. Lt. Col. Willis F. Daniels of the judge advocate's office at Olmstead Field will represent the Army. Judge W. C. Sheely will preside.

NEGRO HELD FOR MANSLAUGHTER, HIT-RUN COUNT

Calvin Claggett, Fairfield R. D., 36-year-old negro employe on the farm of Mrs. Mabel Walker Willebrandt, was charged last Friday morning with involuntary manslaughter and failure to stop at the scene of an accident in connection with the death of Harry Francis Wetzel, 40-year-old Fairfield R. D. laborer, November 28, 1942.

Claggett was released on $2,500 bond posted by his attorney, Richard A. Brown, Esq., to appear for a hearing on the charges before Justice of the Peace John H. Basehore Monday evening at 7:30 o'clock following an appearance before the justice last Friday morning to hear the charges against him.

Both the involuntary manslaughter charge and the hit and run charge which lists two counts, were signed by Pvt. Robert A. Deitrich of the local sub-station of the state motor police. The hit and run charge alleges that Claggett failed to stop and render assistance and failed to stop and render medical assistance after his sedan allegedly hit Wetzel while the latter was walking along the Zora-Emmitsburg road about 8 p. m. November 28, 1942.

Brother Is Held

Claggett's brother, David Claggett, 42, Fairfield R. D., who had been held with Claggett as a material witness at the county jail since last Monday, remained in jail where he is being detained as a witness in default of $2,000 bond.

The material witness charge against Calvin Claggett was dropped Friday mroning with the signing of the two criminal charges against him and a habeas corpus proceeding which was scheduled for a hearing at 10 o'clock this morning was dropped. Attorney Brown had sought the habeas corpus Thursday "in order to find what charges are against Claggett," he said.

Cpl. C. F. Tempke, Pvt. Deitrich, Claggett, District Attorney J. Francis Yake, Jr., and Attorney Brown were present in Justice Basehore's office Friday morning for the appearance. Claggett was brought from the jail where he had been a prisoner since Monday by Corporal Tempke and then Private Deitrich signed the charges.

Denies Charges

The charges were signed and read to Claggett before Attorney Brown appeared to post the $2,000 bond on the involuntary manslaughter and a $500 bond on the hit and run charge.

Brown asked Claggett, "Did you hear these charges?"

Claggett answered, "Yes sir; they untrue!"

The negro has been an employe at the Willebrandt farm for the last three years, coming here from Montgomery county, Maryland.

Harry Wetzel, whom Claggett is charged with fatally injuring with his car, was found about a half hour after the accident is supposed to have occurred, lying in the middle of the road. A depressed fracture of his forehead and another fracture at the base of the skull were believed to have caused his death. He apparently had not been dragged or rolled along the road.

INSTALLATION HELD SUNDAY

Officers of the Church school and officers and charter members of the Ky Ro Nika, new youth fellowship group, were installed at a candlelight communion service Sunday evening in the Presbyterian church. The Rev. Robert M. Hunt, pastor of the church, was in charge of the double installation ceremony while young people shared worship service which was preliminary to the Communion.

The group of church school officers and teachers who were installed formally were led by the general superintendent, E. Donald Scott.

The officers of the young people's group follow: President, Ruth Warman; first vice president, Edith Carbaugh; second vice president, Edward Carbaugh; secretary, Mary Bisbing; treasurer, William Tipton; pianist, Jack Cromwell; charter members, David and Norman Rasmussen and Helen Miller.

The same group of young people participated in the worship service that preceded the sacrament. Elders S. G. Bigham, James P. Cairns, John K. Lott, O. H. Benson and E. Donald Scott took part in the Communion service while a colored picture of Leonardo da Vinci's "Last Supper" was thrown on a screen back of the Communion table.

Special music included a vocal duet by Mrs. Robert M. Hunt and Mrs. Richard A. Brown.

Big "Sign Mystery" Perplexes Police

The "mystery of the missing sign" was plaguing borough police last Friday.

The sign in question, up to sometime last Thursday night, informed motorists going around the square that by turning north on Carlisle street they could in due time reach Harrisburg, Carlisle and other points. The sign was attached to the light standard on the east side of the center plot.

Friday morning the sign had disappeared from the light standard and was lying in a crushed condition in the shrubbery in the center plot. The light standard, undamaged, presented a nude appearance to York street.

Borough officer Paul B. Shealer believes the sign was on the pole when he went off duty at 8 o'clock Thursday evening while Borough Officer Charles W. Culp, Jr., is similarly convinced that the sign was off the standard when he went on duty at 8 o'clock Thursday evening.

PFC. M'MILLION IS "MISSING IN ACTION" IN ITALY

Private First Class Orby W. McMillion, Gettysburg, has been listed as "missing in action" according to a telegram from the Adjutant General received by his wife Tuesday morning.

The telegram, sent by "Dunlop, acting, The Adjutant General," to Mrs. Corean McMillion said, "The Secretary of War desires me to express his deep regret that your husband, Private First Class Orby W. McMillion, has been reported missing in action since February 18 in Italy. Letter follows."

Private McMillion, who was inducted into the U. S. Army May 4, 1943, was sent overseas to North Africa October 28. It was not known Tuesday how long he has been serving in Italy and the last letter received by his wife from Private McMillion, sent February 5, did not mention that he was in combat at that time.

Native of West Virginia

The 30-year-old soldier was sent to Camp Shelby, Mississippi, after his induction and assigned to the infantry. On his birthday last year, October 9, he was sent to Fort Meade and 19 days later was sent overseas.

A native of Renick, West Virginia, he has lived in Gettysburg the last 13 years, working for a time at the Gettysburg furniture plants and then was employed at the Mechanicsburg Naval Depot before entering the armed forces.

RED CROSS FUND NEAR $28,000

The Adams County Red Cross War campaign was within $74 of $28,000 Monday with the total of contributions so far being $27,926.04. With approximately $1,000 outstanding in the hands of solicitors and with a number of canvassers securing supplies last week to continue their collections, it was believed today the campaign may exceed the $30,000 mark when all donations are in.

The drive officially closed March 31 when the county passed its quota of $26,500.

Included among the week-end contributions was another $5 given in honor of an Adams county man in service. Mr. and Mrs. Ira M. Walter, Gettysburg R. 2, gave the gift in honor of their nephew, Seaman 2/c Glenn C. Thomas, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Thomas, Arendtsville. A number of countians so far have given extra gifts to the Red Cross in honor of their men in the armed forces.

Local Couple Buys Business At Aspers

W. Earl Gulden, for the last two years proprietor of the Gulden's Self-Service store, Aspers, has sold the store to Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Kime, Gettysburg, it was announced last Friday.

Mr. Gulden, who will be inducted into the U. S. Navy in May, has purchased a home in Camp Hill where his family will reside while he is in Navy service.

Robert Troxell, of the U.S. Marines, who had been spending a 10-day furlough with his parents, Prof. and Mrs. Fred Troxell, Gettysburg, was notified Monday morning of his promotion to sergeant. Sergeant Troxell left Tuesday to resume his duties at Cherry Point, North Carolina.

Capt. Berkheimer Has Part In Easter Dawn Service In Australia

An Associated Press dispatch Saturday from the South Pacific disclosed that Capt. G. H. Berkheimer, pastor "on leave" of the Arendtsville Lutheran charge recently transferred from New Guinea to Australia, would give the invocation at the principal Easter Dawn service of a number to be held in Australia on the second anniversary of the fall of Bataan.

By C. YATES McDANIEL

Allied Headquarters, Southwest Pacific, (AP) — Thousands of American servicemen and women gathered at sunrise Sunday for services symbolizing the spirit which marked the eulogies for the men on Bataan, pronounced two years ago by Gen. Douglas MacArthur and President Manuel Quezon of the Philippines.

The anniversary of the loss of Bataan falls this year on Easter Sunday.

General MacArthur paid tribute to the Bataan heroes at the time in these words:

"The Bataan force went out as it would have wished—fighting to the end. No army has ever done so much with so little. Nothing became it more than its last hour of trial and agony."

Those Filipino and American soldiers, planeless airmen and shipless sailors and American Marines, held up the Japanese onslaught 3½ months.

Tide Is Rising

Easter two years ago found the United Nations' cause in the Pacific near its lowest ebb. Easter this year finds the tide in the Pacific flowing westward and northward toward the Philippines and Asia, gathering power and speed with each advance.

Acknowledging the honors bestowed on him by the commonwealth government on the second anniversary of his arrival in Australia from the Philippines, General MacArthur renewed his pledge:

"I came through and I shall return."

MacArthur's communique announcing the American landings in the Admiralty islands February 29 said that group was 1,300 miles (great circle nautical miles) from the Philippines.

One hundred and twenty American sailors commanded by Lt. Robert H. Halsey, Jr., of New York city formed a living cross around which thousands of Allied servicemen and civilians gathered for an Easter sunrise service somewhere in Australia. Similar services were been arranged by the American Red Cross and Army chaplains of other Southwest Pacific ports.

Private Guise

Last week he was Chief of Police Glenn Guise but now it's Private Jacob G. Guise of Platoon No. 221, 6th Recruit Battalion, Parris Island, South Carolina. He was inducted last Monday at Harrisburg.

AIR CORPS TO UTILIZE LOCAL FLYING STAFF

The Army Air Forces plans to utilize the flying experience of the flight instructors at the Gettysburg School of Aeronautics who can qualify in several categories of flight personnel subject to prevailing standards, it was officially learned today.

John P. Morris, director of the Civil Aeronautics Administration of the War Training Services, informed Richard Bircher, owner-operator of the local airport of the new plans of the Air Corps.

Instructors will be used in the following branches:

Combat pilots with necessary consideration to be given in individual cases allowing for the by-passing of intermediate courses of such trainings.

Pilots in the Army Transport Command, ferrying division.

Glider pilots.

Navigators or bombardiers; radio operators, aerial gunners and other combat crew positions.

Those not electing or not qualifying for any of the above air crew categories may request discharge from the Enlisted Reserve Corps or request call to active duty with the Army Air Forces with an opportunity of selecting available and suitable phase of ground training.

The Army Air Force said: "The civilian instructors who have participated in our training program have done an excellent job which is sincerely appreciated by the Army Air Forces. We will see that enlisted reservists are given every opportunity to serve in these capacities for which they are professionally and physically qualified."

Two Seek Post As 1st Ward Constable

The post of constable in the first ward, Gettysburg, left vacant by the resignation of Chief of Police Glenn Guise because of his induction into the Marines, will be filed by county court following a hearing April 21 at 10 a. m.

Two petitions were received by the court Saturday listing candidates for the position. One petition suggested the name of Borough Officer Clark W. Staley, South Stratton street, who was appointed to take the position on the borough police left vacant by Private Guise's induction, as constable. The other petition lists George A. Hughes, who was constable of Cumberland township for more than 14 years and high constable in Gettysburg for four years, for the post.

A hearing will be held at the same time by the court on the petition filed by voters of the second ward suggesting Charles Utz as constable at the second ward to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Charles J. Myers.

Jacob A. Stock Observes 91st Birthday On Easter

Jacob A. Stock, Gettysburg, celebrated his 91st birthday Easter Sunday with a small gathering of his children and their families at his home.

Mr. Stock, one of the county's few nonagenarians, was said to be "in the best of condition" and completely recovered from an illness suffered in September which sent him to the Warner hospital September 21 where he underwent an appendectomy. It was his first illness in 80 years. He remained three weeks at the hospital and was the oldest man ever to be operated upon at the Gettysburg institution for a ruptured appendix.

For 65 years he was a maker of shoes in Gettysburg, and made more than 7,000 pairs during the years he operated his shop on North Washington street. He retired several years ago. He frequently recalls that there were 19 shoemakers in town at one time back in the days when there were no ready-made shoes of any account to be purchased and all shoes were turned out by hand directly from measurements made of purchaser's foot.

For many decades the professors at the college and students there purchased the great majority of their shoes from Mr. Stock.

He remembers the battle of Gettysburg and frequently tells of the occupation of his home by Confederates during one stage of the battle. The house where he was born is situated near the Warner hospital on South Washington street. Mr. Stock's family fled the building during the battle and on their return found that it had apparently been occupied by a Confederate sniping outfit and that the Union army had turned much fire power against the house. There were holes from at least 25 cannon balls in the building, he recalls. One cannon ball cut through the rafters and dropped a section of the roof into the attic.

He still indulges in short walks, although he does not take the long trips afoot that he used to enjoy. In his early life he frequently walked to the South Mountains, hunted all day, and walked home.

NEGRO PLEADS "NO DEFENSE" ON TWO COUNTS

Calvin Claggett, 36-year-old Fairfield R. D. negro farm worker, Monday evening entered pleas of nolle contendere (no defense) to charges of involuntary manslaughter and hit-and-run driving laid against him in connection with the death November 28, 1942, of Harry Francis Wetzel, 40, Fairfield R. D.

The pleas were entered at the beginning of what was to have been a hearing on the charges before Justice of the Peace John H. Basehore. Richard A. Brown, Esq., attorney for Claggett, renewed a $2,500 bond for Claggett to appear before the Adams county court the latter part of this month. Mr. Brown signed the bond as "attorney in fact for Mabel Walker Willebrandt." Mrs. Willebrandt is Claggett's employer.

Claggett's brother, David Claggett, Fairfield R. D., who had been held in the county jail for the last two weeks as a material witness in default of $2,000 bond, was released after the pleas were entered.

The commonwealth had brought only one witness for the hearing, Miss Rosalee Clipper, colored, Washington, D. C., whose testimony was not taken after Claggett's plea was made. State police refused to comment on how Miss Clipper might be connected with the case.

The involuntary manslaughter and hit and run charges were brought against Claggett by Pvt. Robert A. Dietrich, of the local substation, although Cpl. C. F. Temke, in charge of the local station, said nearly all members of the local force took part in the investigation made during the last year and a half.

According to the charges before Justice Basehore, Claggett is accused of fatally injuring Wetzel when his sedan struck the man about 8 p. m., November 28, 1942, as Wetzel was walking along the Zora-Emmitsburg road in Liberty township. The charges allege that after hitting Wetzel, Claggett continued on his way without rendering assistance. Wetzel's body was found by a passerby about a half hour after the accident is supposed to have occurred. He was lying in the middle of the highway.

BOARD STUDIES SCHOOL BUDGET; TEACHER QUITS

Given the resignation of one member of the high school faculty and told another will not return to her duties for the remainder of this year, members of the Gettysburg school board pondered means of refilling the teaching staff at the April meeting of the board, Monday evening, when the 1944-45 proposed budget was presented for study.

The new budget, which anticipates greater operating expenses next year than during the current term in some departments, is based on a continuation of the present 20-mill tax rate. Final action on the budget, which is now open for public inspection, is scheduled to be taken next month.

One provision in the proposed budget submitted by Superintendent L. C. Keefauver is a $4,000 cushion "for emergency expenditures" which, it was pointed out might be available to boost the "emergency pay" increases of $60 a year voted all town teachers last year.

Miss Howe Resigns

Although no large salary increases could be given without requiring an increase in the 20-mill tax rate, several of the school officials said the additional $40 per year to the emergency pay increase for each teacher would not mean higher taxes. No decision was reached on the pay increase but the matter was held open for consideration.

The board accepted the resignation of Miss Josephine Howe, instructor in typing at the high school for the last two years. The letter of resignation, which fixed the end of the current term as the effective date of the resignation, said Miss Howe expects to enter a war industry.

The directors also discussed the problem of finding a substitute for Mrs. Frederick Tilberg, member of the high school faculty who has been absent from her classes for more than a week and who has notified the high school principal, G. W. Lefever, that she does not expect to resume her work this year. She has not resigned.

Re-elect Dr. Sheely

The budget estimates receipts at $137,103.22 with expected costs amounting to $128,119. Both figures are close to the final totals expected for the current term.

Dr. Raymond F. Sheely was re-elected medical inspector for the Gettysburg public schools for another year at his present salary of $60 per month.

Superintendent Keefauver was directed to arrange for a speaker for the high school commencement exercises to be held May 31. The Rev. Charles K. Gibson, new pastor of the Methodist church, will be invited to deliver the high school baccalaureate sermon in St. James Lutheran church, Sunday evening, May 28.

To Repair Property

Miss Phyllis McCleaf, secretary to the high school principal, was voted a pay increase of $10 per month.

The painting of Meade and Lincoln school buildings, pavement and roof and other repairs to school properties were placed in the hands of the property committee which is headed by Director Charles S. Black.

The monthly report of the school district treasurer showed a balance in the general fund of $33,927.62. Receipts for the last month were $2,280 and expenses $8,953. The profit in the high school cafeteria for March was $195, the board was told.

President Ralph Z. Oyler presided with Directors Mahlon P. Hartzell, Paul Rohrbaugh, Charles B. Bender, Arthur E. Hutchison, Mr. Black and Charles M. Sheely and Superintendent Keefauver in attendance.

Captain Rhoads Gets Purple Heart

Captain John P. Rhoads, a battalion surgeon with an anti-aircraft unit on the Anzio beachhead in Italy, was awarded the Purple Heart on March 16, according to word received by his wife, the former Miss Janet Ott, 222 Springs avenue.

In a letter dated March 24, Captain Rhoads revealed he had been "injured" but did not reveal the extent of his wounds.

Captain Rhoads, who was a practicing physician here for several years, entered the service in August, 1942. He was stationed at Camp Stewart, Georgia, until going overseas in March, 1943.

DEATH CLAIMS REV. REMSBERG, COLLEGE GRAD

The Rev. Wilson Lee Remsberg, 95, D.D., pastor emeritus of St. Paul's Lutheran church of Funkstown, Maryland, and the dean of Washington county ministers, died at his home in Funkstown at 6:30 a. m. last Friday of complications after an illness of one week.

An ordained minister for the past 67 years, he was pastor of the Funkstown church and the Salem Lutheran charge at Bakersville for 36 years prior to his retirement in 1935, and until a year ago frequently assisted the pastor, the Rev. Ray Miller, at funerals and in other church activities.

The son of Daniel and Catherine E. Remsberg, he was born in Middletown, Md., on December 26, 1848. When a child of eight years, he began to assist his father in the latter's woolen factory, and in later years he was fond of recalling how he worked from sun-up to sundown on the water-powered looms, to the light of lard-burning lamps, weaving blankets, rag-carpets and other articles. His elementary schooling at Middletown academy was obtained during four winters. On January 11, 1870, he entered the preparatory school of Gettysburg college, and in June of the same year was admitted to the college, graduating in 1874. In 1877 he was ordained a minister of the gospel by the Northern Illinois synod of the General synod.

Wrote Church Music

In 1876, immediately prior to his ordination he supplied the Grafton, W. Va., pastorate, and after he was ordained he served many charges until December, 1935.

Among the veteran minister's accomplishments was hymn writing, and his talent in composing both words and lyrics won him an invitation to assist in compiling the first hymnal of the General Synod, membership in a committee for the preparation of Augsburg Songs No. 1, and selection by the church board to prepare several Easter services.

On June 6, 1938, at the age of 91, he was made doctor of divinity by Gettysburg college, in recognition of his outstanding services to the church, especially through his musical compositions.

Rites Sunday

He was married to Katie B. Strole December 12, 1899, and is survived by the following children: Mrs. William Paul Yingst, Cleona, Pa.; Robert A., of Pittsburgh; Wilbur S., of Hagerstown; and Mrs. John S. Small, of Waynesboro. Seven grandchildren, three of whom are in the armed forces, survive. He was the only survivor of a family of eleven children.

Funeral services Sunday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock at St. Paul's Lutheran church, Funkstown. Interment in the Funkstown cemetery.

INSTALLMENT STAMP BUYING IS SUGGESTED

Mares Sherman, chairman of the retail division of the County War Finance committee, making plans for the forthcoming Fifth War Bond campaign which opens June 12, toannounced a new suggested-plan for "that extra bond that we will be asked to buy."

Mr. Sherman said that the Treasury Department has advanced the suggestion that bond buyers start now to "buy bonds on the installment plan," which will not interfere with the regular purchase of bonds in the meantime.

The plan is to purchase war stamps, of large denominations, each day or each week from now until the opening of the campaign.

Buy Stamps Regulatly

"For instance, a $1 war savings stamp purchased every shopping day between now and the next war bond drive should provide just about enough stamps for an extra $100 bond at that time," Mr. Sherman said.

"A $5 war stamp purchased every week should accumulate almost enough for an extra $100 bond by June 12.

Stamps for Bonds

"Of course, no one should neglect his regular investment in bonds, because the Treasury still needs billions of dollars with which to finance the war. Regular buying of war stamps is one of the best habits of thrift a person can form, and war stamps can be purchased so conveniently at most retail stores, when you buy merchandise.

"War stamps are not counted by the Federal Reserve bank as bond sales until they are converted into bonds. Thus, while money toward extra bonds in the next war loan drive may be invested in war stamps today, it will actually count in the next war loan drive if the stamps purchased in the meantime are applied toward extra bonds during the period of the next war loan drive.

"If we put this installment buying plan into effect now it will help us to reach our goal in the next drive.

"Most merchants carry a supply of war stamps on hand for the convenience of their customers," Mr. Sherman said.

Tuberculosis Group Reelects Keefauver

L. C. Keefauver was re-elected president of the Adams County Tuberculosis society at the annual re-organization meeting held Tuesday evening at the Red Cross offices, Gettysburg.

Other officers re-named at the same time were R. Z. Oyler, first vice president; Miss Dorothy Warner, second vice president; Miss Margaret McMillan, secretary; W. A. Keeney, treasurer, and Miss Helen Spangler, executive secretary.

The association decided to make an attempt to secure a part time nurse to take part in the tuberculosis testing program conducted annually in the high schools of the county by the association. The nurse will accompany the state doctor who conducts the tests and then will check on the results of the test.

President Keefauver presided at the session.

FUND IS SOUGHT FOR EXTENSION OF PLAYGROUND

Reappointment of supervisors for the playground and a plan to establish a playground extension and equipment fund with which to develop the center after the war is over were among the decisions made Monday afternoon at a meeting of the Gettysburg Recreation Board at the Metropolitan Edison company office.

Fred P. Haehnlen, instructor in chemistry at Gettysburg high school, and Miss Arlene Plank, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Plank, Gettysburg R. D., and a student at Kutztown State Teachers' college, who have been supervisors at the playground since its establishment three years ago were re-appointed for another term.

Opens June 19

The local playground on the high school property will open Monday, June 19, and close Saturday, August 26, the board decided. While no special program has been scheduled for the opening date, the playground will close with a special Parents' Day program on August 26.

Present plans call for an increase in the handicraft work under the instruction of Miss Plank this coming summer in response to the "enthusiasm shown by the youngsters for the work," the board said. Among the handicraft projects last year were clay work, airplane models and paper novelties. The handicraft is placed on display during Parent's Day. A softball league will be resumed again this season with the youngsters staging a play-off on the closing date.

To secure a quota of $500 set for the first year's contributions to the playground extension and improvement fund, the board planned to send letters to all fraternal, civic and church organizations asking donations to the fund.

Tennis Courts

Present plans call for the construction of tennis courts and out of door basketball facilities with part of the fund. Because it is impossible during the present time to secure playground equipment all income over the amount needed to carry on the present work at the play center will go into the fund.

Board members Ralph Z. Oyler, Mahlon Hartzell, Sr., George March and Paul Kinsey attended the session.

Plank, who had served as treasurer, and Mrs. A. Harrison Barr, who was chairman of the house committee.

To Attend Conference

Mrs. Wentz installed the new directors while the installation of officers was conducted by Mrs. Donald P. McPherson, Jr., chairman of the re-organization committee.

The board voted to send a representative to the YWCA regional conference to be held at Atlantic City from April 21 to 23. Regular reports of committee chairmen were received at the session. The opening devotions were led by Mrs. Wentz on an appropriate post-Easter theme.

ASK APPROVAL OF NEW SYSTEM ON FARM DRAFT

Adams county's War Board will be using a unit system, somewhat similar to the 16 unit program previously used, to determine the eligibility of farm workers for deferments if the Selective Service system accepts a program offered as a "yardstick" by a committee of war board members from throughout the state last Friday.

The new "yardstick" if approved, will be "a little tougher" in some respects than the present unit system. Sixteen units are still used as the basis for farm deferments under the new plan, but some of the units have been made more stringent. It could not be learned today what units have been changed.

It was not thought today that Selective Service would turn down the revised deferment program, with a number of state Selective Service officials meeting with the approximately 30 war board members at the Harrisburg session. Harrison F. Snyder, chairman of the Adams county war board, was one of the men who attended the special session.

To Serve As Guide

Under the present plans, it was learned today, the "yardstick" will not be "a hard and fast rule" whereby a person can obtain a deferment by simply securing 16 units, it was described as "a guide for the war board in deciding the essential nature of a farmer's work."

It was asserted that by using the new unit system, or something similar, as a yardstick, the boards can determine what a farm worker is doing. Any other system, it was said, would leave too many loopholes and cause too much difference between counties as to the essentiality of an individual worker.

"There are a few farmers with deferments who are not pulling their share of the load," a war board member said today, "but under the new system I think we can smoke them out and put them into the Army."

Investigators Busy

Four investigators are on the road every day checking farm deferments for the war board at the request of the two county draft boards.

The investigators, it was learned, go directly to the farms where the deferment is given and "even count the cows where they believe there might be a slip up," it was stated.

The entire tightening up process is designed to eliminate those who hold farm deferments who are not doing their share of the work, it was stated. The most stringent tests made by the war board are on deferments for men from 18 to 26, it was stated.

DISCUSS 4-H CLUB PROGRAM

Plans for 4-H club activities during the coming summer were outlined Tuesday at a meeting of local leaders of the county clubs at the home of Mrs. J. S. Deatrick, Aspers.

Miss Isabelle Myers, assistant 4-H club leader from State College, and Miss Mildred L. Adams, county home economics representative led the discussion of new trends in 4-H work. The group decided to write the parents of the 4-H club members explaining how the youngsters can serve their country through 4-H work and outlining the cooperation needed from the parents to carry out a successful 4-H club program. The main objective of 4-H work was described as "helping youngsters to help themselves and others." Increased responsibilities for youth has caused increased need for guidance, the leaders' letters pointed out. The 4-H leaders are planning this year to make a special effort in cooperation with parents so that the 4-H program will not interfere with the work program on the farms.

Those attending the session included Miss Stella Murren, Brushtown club leader; Mrs. David March and Mrs. Earl Smith, Good Hope club leaders; Mrs. Charles Evans and Mrs. Glenn Sterner, Round Top club leaders; Mrs. Charles Snider, former Mt. Pleasant club leader and Mrs. Deatrick and Mrs. Lower.

500 Fishermen Ready For Season

At least 500 countians will be ready to fish for trout when the season opens Saturday morning, a check on the number of licenses issued so far by the county treasurer revealed today.

The season will close July 31 for charr or other types of trout. The fish must be at least six inches in size before the fisherman can keep them. No fishing is allowed in any stream stocked with trout between 5 p. m. Friday and 5 a. m. Saturday, no matter what the fisherman may be attempting to catch, it was announced.

SPENDS WEEK-END HERE

Chief Carpenter's Mate Gene Sickles, who recently was returned to this country from overseas and is now stationed in Washington, D. C., spent the week-end with friends in Gettysburg.

HURLERS MAY UPSET GIANTS TITLE HOPES

By JACK HAND

New York, April 12 (AP)—First division hopes are a-blooming in the New York Giants camp a week before the season opens, despite last year's dismal cellar finish, but pitching appears to bar the way.

Manager Mel Ott can count on last year's outfield and catching staff plus a renovated inner defense that has been bolstered by the veteran Phil Weintraub at first base.

The pitching is the big question mark with Cliff Melton figuring to be the No. 1 man although Bill Voiselle, who won 10 and lost 21 for Jersey City, has been showing enough spring stuff to be considered an opening day possibility. Reuben Fischer underwent a delicate spinal operation during the winter, but reports he's ready to go.

Other Prospects

Ace Adams may be pressed into starting service after his brilliant relief work in 70 games last year and Johnny Allen, late in reporting, can be spotted with sufficient rest. Ewald Pyle, 30-year-old Southpaw who failed at St. Louis and Washington in the American league, is fighting for a spot along with Frank Seward, 10-game winner at Springfield, Mass. Ken Brondell and Walter Ockey, Army dischargees and Ken Miller, a free agent, complete the staff. Lou Polli has been promoted from Jersey City, off his 1.85 earned run average.

Weintraub at first base is hardly a major league innovation. He's been with the Cardinals Reds, and Phils. Buddy Kerr of Jersey City is at shortstop and Cuban Nap Reyes has shifted from first to third base where he has been getting competition from Hugh Luby, a .313 clouter for Oakland. The veteran Billy Jurges is likely to be the third sacker when he shakes off a leg ailment.

Draft Call Delayed

Ott's draft call probably has been delayed by the new Selective Service orders permitting him to at least start the year in right. Bruce (Fatso) Sloan, up from Little Rock with a .365 average is his replacement. Johnny Rucker is back in center and Joe Medwick, predicting a return to the .300 circle, is a fixture in left. Charley Mead of Jersey City is the extra man, with Steve Filipowicz of Fordham and Dan Gardella of a New York shipyard team headed for the minors.

Ernie Lombardi is the No. 1 catcher, and that department seems to be in fine shape with the veteran Gus Mancuso and Rookie Joe Stephenson from Springfield, Mass., backing up old Schnozz.

Senators Losing Latin Recruits

Washington, April 10 (AP)—Pennant hopes of the Washington Senators, bright and rosy just 24 hours ago, took a downward tumble today as Uncle Sam's draft men took a cut at the contingent of Latin-Americans the club had assembled for the 1944 campaign.

Clark Griffith, baseball's heralded "old fox," thought he had pulled a fast one on the other major league outfits when he signed up some 18 players from Cuba, Puerto Rico, Venezuela and Mexico. Most of them showed promise in training and a couple were slated for regular jobs.

But the selective service system moved in on that blissful outlook with a ruling that the Latins must either return this home or register for the draft in this country by June 12—and take their chances of going into the armed forces.

Should any of the Latins decide to return home—and some of them unquestionably will do just that—they won't be able to reenter the United States without special permission. Thirteen of the south and central American players are of draft age and apparently physically acceptable to the Army.

Bob Montgomery Ready For Service

Philadelphia, April 13 (AP)—Bob Montgomery, holder of the Pennsylvania, New York and New Jersey version of the lightweight boxing championship today was ready to hang up his gloves and join Uncle Sam's fight as a soldier.

The bobcat passed his pre-induction physical examination yesterday and grinned from ear to ear when he was informed he had been accepted.

He regained his three-state title in his last bout with Beau Jack at Madison Square Garden, March 3. Jack has been ordered to take his physical exam April 12.

Chicago (AP)—There will be an added incentive to spur jockeys to victory in the two weeks of racing at Sportsmen's Park— awards of war bonds to riders finishing among the first four.

John L. Keeshin, president of the National Jockey Club and operator of Sportsmen's Park race track, announced the leading rider of the meeting which opens April 29 to inaugurate the Chicago racing season, will be given a $750 war bond. Other awards will be for $400, $300 and $200.

8,000 Keglers In Illinois Tourney

Chicago ,April 13 (AP)—The country's oldest bowling tournament, the Illinois state bowling association's event, will open tonight with some 8,000 keglers entered.

The tourney is the 47th annual sponsored by the association and will run daily through May 23. Prizes totaling more than $25,000 will be awarded the entries—1,565 five-man teams, 1,658 singles, and 3,098 doubles combinations.

NAVY MEN AID CHICAGO SQUAD

Chicago, April 7 (AP)—A winning athletic team at the University of Chicago? Could be. And, with thanks to the Navy, the Maroons' 1944 baseball team might bring a change to the dreary sports picture out at the midway.

Chicago hasn't won a Big Ten conference basketball game in four years, has won only two of 19 baseball contests in the last two years, and generally has finished at the bottom of the pile in other sports events.

A few weeks ago the 1944 baseball prospects for the Maroons didn't brighten the outlook. Ten candidates answered Coach Kyle Anderson's call for baseball practice—youngsters in their late teens with a couple of veterans from last year's squad.

Season Opens Today

But as the Maroons opened their conference season today at Iowa City against the University of Iowa Anderson had a squad of 16—the best looking prospects from his squad of 40.

The increase of the original squad of 10 by men stationed in the Navy unit training on the campus not only saved the sport for the Maroons this season but probably gave them a chance to field the best team in several seasons.

Iowa's 1943 conference record was six wins and four losses as compared to seven defeats for the Maroons.

BISONS TAKE ICE TROPHY

Buffalo, N. Y., April 10 (AP)—The Buffalo Bisons, successful defenders of the American League championship, today prepared to slice a $9,500 playoff melon in the wake of their dramatic 6-4 triumph over Cleveland.

A crowd of 10,245, largest of the local season, witnessed the final game in the Calder Cup series last night in Memorial auditorium, and an estimated 2,500 were turned away.

Facing their first home defeat in 14 games as the third period got under way, the red-hot Bisons whipped five straight goals past Lloyd Storie, who replaced the injured Paul Gauthier in the Cleveland cage. Tom Burlington, Cleveland's one-eyed sharpshooter, had previously turned the hat trick with three successive scores after Morey Rimstad had opened with a Bison goal.

Buffalo is the only repeating Calder Cup winner since the American League was organized in 1936.

Cleveland also won $9,500-$5,500 for eliminating Hershey in the semi-final between divisional leaders, and $4,000 for place money in the final. Buffalo won $4,000 by downing Indianapolis, and $5,500 in the last series. Hershey split $4,000; Indianapolis $3,000.

Train Scramble For Race Horses

Miami, Fla., April 13 (AP)—The headache curve rose sharply in Miami this week as approximately 1,200 race horses joined the human contingent in an undiminished post-season exodus.

Owners of thoroughbreds clamored for instantaneous transportation for their four-legged breadwinners as soon as Tropical Park's spring meeting ended last Saturday.

"We're taking them on a first come, first serve basis, and an aspirin tablet for all that's left over," the Railway Express agency reported. "We couldn't put 1,200 horses in the first few cars available, so the uproar was rather terrifying."

An average of six cars are being loaded daily, with 12 to 16 horses to the car. They are bound for New York, New England, Chicago and Detroit tracks, mostly.

"We'll have 'em all out of here about April 18," a harried official stated.

Holyoke, Mass.—Ike Williams, 138, Trenton, N. J., knocked out Leroy Saunders, 144, New York, 5. Warren Powell, 162, New York, outpointed Tiger Lou Jones, 163, Augusta, Ga., 8.

Baltimore—Cleo Shans, 133¾, Los Angeles, outpointed Ellis Phillips, 136, Philadelphia, 10. Dom Baccala, 133, Baltimore, outpointed Joe Woodly, 131½, Baltimore, 6.

SCHEDULE TWO BENEFIT GAMES FOR RED CROSS

New York, April 13 (AP)—It's all for sweet charity today as New York Yankees and Giants meet at the Polo Grounds, and the Brooklyn Dodgers and the Philadelphia Phillies clash at Ebbets Field.

The Red Cross gets all the gate, and it's liable to add up to a fat figure. Regular prices are being charged, 35,000 are expected to see the Yank-Giant tilt, and no one knows how many will be on hand to see the Bums and the Bluejays.

Hank Borowy will start for the Yanks, and Cliff Melton for the Giants. Freddie Fitzsimmons, Phillie skipper, will open for the Jaybirds, and Rube Melton will be on the hill for the Dodgers.

The day's developments elsewhere:

St. Louis: Pepper Martin played last three innings of Cards-Browns city series game and scored two runs.

Pittsburgh: Pilot Frankie Frisch cheered by Wednesday pitching performance of rookie Art Cucurullo who entered game with score tied and fanned six Clevelanders to win game.

Chicago: Cubs ready to go, squad in best shape in years, Manager Jimmy Wilson says.

Cincinnati: Joe Beggs to share mound with Bucky Walters against Indians today at Richmond, Ind., after being sworn into Navy as lieutenant (jg). Beggs' stay with Reds uncertain.

Boston: Manager Bob Coleman silent on pitching selections for intra-city three-game series with Red Sox starting Friday.

American League

Chicago: "We're in excellent condition. All we need is some batting practice against Cub pitching to be ready for opener against Cleveland Tuesday," Manager Jimmy Dykes declared.

Cleveland: With loss of Ken Keltner imminent, Lou Boudreau is scurrying for another infielder.

Detroit: Don Ross, right fielder, still getting applause for one-hand catch snuffing Louisville rally in eighth, deciding game.

Philadelphia: Coach Lena Blackburne named manager of Lancaster in Interstate league, and five players sent along with him. Infielder Don Heffner and Catcher Bob Swift sold to Detroit.

St. Louis: Jack Jakucki proud he held Cards to two runs in six frames, although he walked three and allowed eight hits.

Boston: Lou Lucier, 26-year-old righthander, classified 4-F because of head injuries suffered at Louisville last year, due to report soon.

Washington: "I have no worries now," Manager Ossie Bluege said. "We have the pitching, and the hitting is improving."

Johnny Lindell Is Accepted By Navy

Atlantic City, N. J., April 8 (AP)—Jack Farrell, publicity director for the New York Yankees, said yesterday that Outfielder Johnny Lindell has been accepted for service in the Navy.

Farrell said Lindell, who will play with the club until called for duty, took his pre-induction physical examination in Camden last Wednesday and was then sent to Fort Dix for further examination.

In last year's world series, Lindell suffered a head injury in a severe collision with Whitey Kurowski of the St. Louis Cardinals.

Honolulu Eleven Seeks Loop Berth

Pittsburgh, April 8 (AP)—A team from Honolulu today seemed a likely entrant in the new, temporarily organized "coast-to-coast" professional football league.

Roland D. Payne, the loop's chairman, said he received a cablegram yesterday from F. J. Brickner of Honolulu which stated:

"Please consider a team from Honolulu in your new league. Details follow by air mail."

No action will be taken on the application, Payne said, until the league members meet later to form a permanent organization which they say will not function until after the war.

BLACKHAWKS GET LEAGUE WARNING

Chicago, April 8 (AP)—Chicago Blackhawk fans had better hold their fire tomorrow night lest the Montreal Canadians take the third game of the Stanley cup finals by forfeit.

That was the gist of the blunt warning issued yesterday by Mervyn "Red" Dutton, president of the National hickey league, as an aftermath to the missile-throwing episode Thursday which caused a 20 minute delay in the second game of the championship series.

Montreal won, 3-1, to take a lead of two games to none in the best of seven series for possession of the cup.

Referring to the barrage of newspapers, confetti, programs, coins and other articles—including a pearl handled jacknife and a woman's compact—Dutton said he had been empowered by the league board of governors "to forfeit any future game to the visiting club if a repetition of this kind occurs in any of the forthcoming games."

Ohio State Coach Gets Commission

Columbus, O., April 13 (AP)—Paul E. Brown, Ohio State university's head football coach, has been commissioned a lieutenant (jg) in the Navy and ordered to report to Great Lakes next Monday, he disclosed today.

Brown who was sworn in yesterday is 35 years old, married and has three sons.

Choice of his successor at Ohio State remains with Brown, who will be "coach in absentia."

By HUGH FULLERTON, JR.

New York, April 13 (AP)—Although there's nothing in the wording of the new draft ruling regarding men over 26 that even hints at the status of baseball players, some baseball men who have their ears tuned to Washington wavelengths insist that it means their athletes won't be called. . . . "The Army doesn't want 'em and they won't try to force ball players into war jobs," said one. "It's like the limited service men. They told us down there, 'There's only one place for those fellows and that's right on your ball clubs.'" . . . An Oklahoman who figures that anonymity is the better part of valor, forwards the report that medical discharges in the Army these days are accompanied by Tulsa U. football posters. But if Coach Frnka really has the Army docs organized that much, it probably was to keep the Giants from signing 'em all as baseball players.

KIDS'LL PLAY BASEBALL, TOO

Latest report on the growth of "kid" baseball comes from Milwaukee, where the "stars of yesterday" program, begun in 1936, operated with 85 teams last year. . . . Teams are named for former Brewer stars, hence the tag. . . . A notable feature of the project is a baseball school, conducted by former pro players, which has drawn more than 6,500 kids to "Professor" Jack Kloza's lectures and nearly 11,000 at the outdoor classes.

ONE-MINUTE SPORTS PAGE

Jimmy Johnston has accepted an offer for his re-treaded heavyweight, Tony Shucco, to fight Turkey Thompson in Hollywood, Calif., late in May, but in making the bid Promoter Joe Lynch insisted that Jimmy must accompany Shucco or the fight was off. . . . Who's the attraction, anyway? . . . Paul Richards, Detroit Tigers' catcher, wrote sports for the Waxahatchie, Texas, "Light" last winter. . . . Big Bill Freelove, owner of the Los Angeles Mustangs, is trying to organize an eight-club pro football league on the west coast to start operations next fall.

A ROOKIE A DAY

Louis Americus (Crip) Polli, New York Giants—Who called him a rookie? He's 40 years old and in 1930, when he had a trial with the Yankees, Bob Shawkey told him he'd never be a big leaguer. . . . Nevertheless Crip showed enough at Jersey City last year (leading the league in earned run averages with 1.85) and in spring training to earn promotion. A little guy, he pitches more with his head than with his arm. . . . And some day when the batters have the range of that short right field wall at the Polo Ground, he may think it's his head sailing into the stands.

SERVICE DEPT.

Lieut. Max E. R. Keiffer, who used to write V-mail letters from the Pacific about basketball, is sending them the other way now from Hondo, Texas. . . . During the season he sent scores and court comments to about 70 fellow fans overseas. . . . Adolph Kiefer, who has won more swimming races than you can count, has just won his ensign's stripe at the Bainbridge, Md., Naval Training Station. . . . WAVE Ensign Grace Wilts of the Jacksonville, Fla., Naval Air Technical Training Center, once coached a junior high boys' football team in Morristown, N. J. . . . "I stole the plays but the team did all right," she admits.

Fontaine Loses Decision To Garcia

Pittsburgh, April 11 (AP)—Juste Fontaine, Fritzie Zivic's promising protege from Milwaukee, failed to give his army-bound mentor a going away present last night when he lost an eight-round decision to bull-shouldered Ruby Garcia. It was his first loss in his 18 professional bouts.

Fontaine's inexperience cost him the fight, although the decision was close. The lithe Frenchman was not content to stay out of reach and jab his way to a victory, but insisted on mixing with Garcia. The Puerto Rican, a tough infighter and a sharp counter puncher, came out of a seventh round flurry to almost knock Fontaine out, and gain an edge the Milwaukean could not overcome by a last-round rally.

On The Associated Press scoreboard Garcia won four rounds, Fontaine three, with one even. Garcia weighed 133, Fontaine 131.

Philadelphia Phillies—It was good hit, no field for the Phils as they defeated the Boston Red Sox yesterday. Manager Freddy Fitzsimmons' crew connected for 11 safe blows, but made three errors.

NICK KEARNS DISLIKES NEW COURT RULES

By BUCKY O'CONNOR

Chicago, April 11 (AP)—He didn't exactly say so, but one of these days Nick Kearns, veteran cage official, may decide to picket the National Basketball Committee as "unfair to organized (and unorganized) referees."

Kearns, who has refereed Big Ten games for more than 20 years, was outspoken today in denouncing the committee's recent rule changes allowing a player five instead of four personal fouls a game and outlawing so-called goal tending by tall boys.

Kearns fumed that the new regulations place too heavy a burden on officials. "In the last few years," he went on, "coaches already had doctored the rules so as to put 90 per cent of the burden of a game on officials. Now they've gone ahead and raised it to 99.9 per cent."

Filing a bill of particulars, he added that the five foul rule would encourage teams with a plenitude of players to foul with abandon. In anticipation he warned fellow referees to be prepared for an extremely busy season of whistle tooting, with an accompanying increase in razzberries from fans.

Kearns charged that coaches advocated the new rule outlawing goal tending because they "don't know how to weave a defense for a man more than 6 feet 2, so they decided to penalize height.

"In what other sport is a lad's God-given ability penalized?" he asked belligerently.

BORN TO BE A CROONER—BUT HE'S A JOCKEY

Miami, Fla., April 8 (AP)—Jockey Bobby Permane's parents raised their boy to be a crooner.

The curley-haired apprentice who set a record by riding five winners at Tropical park yesterday for the second consecutive day, comes from a theatrical family and spent his boyhood behind the footlights.

It was a blow to his mother, Mrs. Charles W. Fairbanks, when he turned to riding horses, but she decided today the boy had done all right in his new profession.

"He's really getting top billing," she declared.

Bobby's parents were in vaudeville when he was born, between engagements at Camden, N. J., twenty years ago. He slipped naturally into a career as an entertainer and sang on the radio and toured America and Australia with a song and monologue skit.

His father, who did a concertina and comic trapeze act, died six years ago and his mother now is married to an Army Air Forces sergeant on duty in the South Pacific.

When Bobby put on silks at Garden State park last August he didn't say much about his theatrical past, but he wasn't disconcerted when it became general knowledge during the Tropical season and the other jockeys began calling him the "Sinatra of the turf."

"That's not for me," Bobby grinned. "All that fellow has that I want is his weight."

The youngster did well at Hialeah but did not round into top form until the Tropical Park season was well advanced. He began a sensational sprint that has given him 45 firsts in 29 days, 13 in the last three.

He was up on his first winner last August 31 and keeps his five-pound apprentice allowance for a year from that date.

Montreal Canadiens Near Hockey Trophy

Chicago, April 11 (AP) — The powerful Canadiens, defeated only six times in 58 games this season, today were on the verge of a clean sweep of four straight over the Chicago Blackhawks and possession of hockey's greatest prize, the Stanley cup which they won last in 1931 by defeating the Hawks.

Whipping across two goals less than a minute apart early in the final period Sunday night, Canadiens came from behind to win 3 to 2 at Chicago stadium in the third game. They won the opener at Montreal, 5-1, and the second contest here, 3-1.

Last night's encounter, witnessed by 17, 694, was Chicago's finale and the teams move to Montreal to finish the best of seven series. If the heavily favored Canadiens are upset by the Hawks in the fourth game Thursday, the teams will battle again Saturday. The sixth and seventh games, if necessary, will be played the following Tuesday and Thursday.

New York — Lenny "Boom Boom" Mancini, 143½, Youngstown, O., knocked out Tiger Nelson, 146¼, Washington, 1.

White Plains, N. Y. — Carmine Fatta, 136¼, Newburgh, N. Y., and Bucky Taylor, 140¾, Baltimore, drew, 8.

AAU BOUTS END WITH BARRAGE OF KNOCKOUTS

By STEVE O'LEARY

Boston... (AP)—It took some time to unlimber the big guns, but when the boys from the midwest finally opened up with the heavy artillery the National AAU boxing championships ended with a barrage of knockouts.

Apparently the boys were saving the fireworks for the finale because, from the time spindly Cecil Schoonmaker, a 112-pound golden glover from New York, opened the championship round with a first-frame knockout, the heat was on.

It remained, though, for the Cleveland boys to put the coup de grace to the affair and Ray Standifer ,the light-heavy, and Sgt. Eddie Sims, USA, heavyweight obliged with convincing first round icings to send the 7,000 odd fans home happy. Sims in particular pole-axed one Rayno workman from Alexandria, Va., so decisively that for a moment it seemed hospitalization would be necessary.

Major Jones, the bustling little feather from Kansas City, concocted the other lethal display in the finals by a first-round knockout of Horace Tahbone, the Oklahoma Indian.

The new champions include five under 18 years of age, one 19-year-old 4-F, a war worker and a service man.

Title Winners

112—Cecil Schoonmaker, New York, 17, previously won national Golden Gloves and east-west tourneys. Hopes to turn pro after the war. Thinks he was lucky.

118—Nick Saunders, St. Louis, 19—4-F war worker, thinks he'll remain amateur.

126—Major Jones, Kansas City, 16, schoolboy, wants to be as good as Ray Robinson and is well on the way.

135—Joey D'Amato, Warren, O., 16, sorry had to win at expense of teammate and roommate Frank Muche. May turn pro next year.

147—Joe Gannon, Washington, D. C., 17, fighting since six his explanation of his fine showing. Plans joining Navy on return to Washington. (Ed. note to fleet welter champ: keep that left hand high, Mac!).

160—Frank Sweeney, Washington, D. C., 17, green but willing, only has boxed five months.

DARK HORSE IN GOLF TOURNEY

Pinehurst, N. C., April 13 (AP)—George McCallister of Spartanburg, S. C., champion of that city for four years, emerged today as a darkhorse contender for the title in the 44th north and south amateur golf tournament.

McCallister, who has been up and coming since his ace in the first round of the Durham open a fortnight ago, upset Pete Ladislaw, a favorite, 3 and 2 yesterday. The North Hills, L. I., shotmaker had tied with Bill Cozart of Durham, N. C., for second place in the qualifying round and was regarded as a possible finalist with medalist Mal Galletta of St. Albans, N. Y.

Cozart beat Jack Ryerson of Cooperstown, N. Y., 6 and 4 in their quarter-final match; Galletta won from S. B. Gardiner of Plandome, L. I., 3 and 2; and Jim Fownes of Pittsburgh, who advanced to the quarter-final with a 1 up victory over Pfc. Alec Thomas of Camp Mackall on the 27th hole, eliminated Stedman Tinker of Columbus, O., 3 and 2.

The semi-final pitted Galletta against Cozart and McCalister against Fownes.

Grooms' Strike At Jamaica Wins Raise

New York, April 11 (AP)—After a brief strike of grooms that converted yesterday's first race into a no-betting walkover affair for star of Padula, all seven races were expected to be run without interference today at Jamaica race track.

The Grooms won their request for $5 for each horse led to the paddock plus an additional $10 for a winner when the State Racing Commission approved a track-sponsored plan of increasing the purse for each race by $100. The increase, effective today, applies only to purses up to $5,000 at all New York tracks.

Yanks in Slump

New York Yankees—the world champions, in the throes of a losing streak, face more trouble today when they entertain Connie Mack's undefeated Philadelphia Athletics. Hank Borowy and Lefty Johnson were expected to work on the mound for the Yanks.

New York Giants—Manager Mel Ott has another "youth" who looks like a comer. He is Louis Polli, 40-year-old pitcher who worked three innings against Jersey City yesterday and held the Little Giants hitless. He is the property of Jersey City, Ut Ott is giving him the once-over.

Fritzie Zivic Now At New Cumberland

Pittsburgh, April 13 (AP)—Fritzie Zivic, his ring career apparently at an end, was at the Army's New Cumberland, Pa., Reception Center today to start a new career as a buck private.

The ex-welterweight champion headed a contingent of eight inductees from local Board No. 9—out in the "Strip" district where Zivic grew up and first learned to use his fists—that left last night.

The Pennsylvania station was jammed as a throng of well-wishers jammed against the station gates to give the irrepressible Zivic a thundering farewell.

FEAR DISPUTE IN PLAYER DRAFT

Philadelphia, April 11 (AP) — There may be a difference of opinion as to who should pick the first player in the draft of college grid stars when owners of national football league clubs gather here next week.

Harry Thayer, general manager of the Philadelphia Eagles, dropped a hint that club owners might not be in agreement when he said yesterday that "some opposition" has developed to giving Ted Collins, owner of the new Boston franchise, the coveted first choice.

"If Collins does not intend to operate the franchise in Boston until after the war, some of the national league owners do not see any reason for him getting first choice," Thayer said.

Collins, manager of Vocalist Kate Smith, has already indicated that he intends to name Angelo Bertelli, former Notre Dame back, as first choice.

When the club owners meet to select their men from the latest crop of collegiate stars they will draw in this order: 1, Chicago Cardinals; 2, Brooklyn Dodgers; 3, Detroit Lions; 4, Philadelphia Eagles; 5, New York Giants; 6, Green Bay Packers; 7, Washington Redskins; 8, Chicago Bears; 9, Pittsburgh Steelers; 10, Cleveland Rams; 11, Boston.

Midwest Leading In Boston Bouts

Boston, April 11 (AP)—The midwest enjoyed a comfortable edge today as the 32 survivors of the opening day rounds of amateur milling moved on toward the climactic semi-final and title battles of the National A. A. U. boxing championships at Boston Garden.

Paced by the ever-dangerous Cleveland team, which placed six of its seven contestants in the semi-final brackets, the midwest in all had 15 representatives while the East presented the nearest threat to its supremacy with a total of 12 survivors of the first day of the strenuous grind.

Oklahoma's three survivors, two of them Indians, were the lone representatives of the southwest while the South and far West had one survivor each to round out the bracket of 32 which will be shaved down to eight champions by the end of tonight's 24 bouts.

SPORT SHORTS

New York, April 8 (AP)—All horses racing at Jamaica and Aqueduct this year are subject to a city compensation use tax of one per cent of their purchase or claiming price.

The city comptroller's office, which imposed the tax yesterday, said the other three New York tracks, Belmont, Empire City and Saratoga, will not be affected since they are outside the city limits.

Mexico City, April 8 (AP)—A United States polo team that will participate in an international tourney here later this month arrived yesterday. The U. S. arrivals included Cecil Smith, Bobby Lightfoot, Bill Barry, Henry Stark and Major W. Long.

Des. Moines, Ia., April 8 (AP)—Harold Osborn, one of America's famed high jumpers of 20 years ago, says he will give an exhibition of his pet event at the Drake relays here April 28 and 29.

Osborn, about 43, has held six world, six American and five Olympic marks at one time or other.

He is an assistant track coach at the University of Illinois, from which he graduated in 1922.

French Lick, Ind., April 8 (AP)—It will be back to Indiana in 1945 for spring training for the Chicago Cubs.

Vice President Jim Gallagher announced last night the club will return to French Lick, thus being assured of retaining first rights on the baseball field on the 18th fairway of the golf course.

Denver, April 8 (AP)—Bill Jelliffe, Lakewood country club pro, has registered his seventh hole-in-one on the 146-yard No. 7 at Lakewood golf course.

He used a No. 8 iron for the ace, his first at Lakewood which he has been playing regularly for seven years.

Washington Senators — Early Wynn and Roger Wolff, allowing only two wind-blown safeties, hurled the Nats to a 1-0 victory over Baltimore yesterday.

PHILS MANAGER FACES TOUGHEST BUILDING TASK

By JACK HAND

Wilmington, Del., April 11 (AP)—Freddy Fitzsimmons has the Phillies hustling this spring but he faces one of the toughest jobs in baseball in trying to improve on last year's seventh place finish in the National league.

Gone are such regular performers as Merrill May, Babe Dahlgren, Danny Murtaugh, Schoolboy Rowe, Si Johnson and Jack Kraus. A crop of double A and Class A rookies are the only replacements.

General Manager Herb Pennock, who took charge of the new organization when Owner Bob Carpenter entered the Army, and Joe Reardon, director of the farm system, have scoured the country to produce the crop of new names that are popping up in the Phils lineup.

Behind the Blue Jay emblem, there are such young hopefuls as Moon Mullen, Charley Letchas, Ted Cieslak, Bitsy Mott, Charley Schanz and Deacon Donahue.

Infield Green

Jimmy Wasdell returns as the first baseman with either Mullen, who hit .272 at Seattle, or Letchas, a .258 clouter for Toronto's International league pennant winners, at second. Ray Hamrick, who finished out last season, has supplanted Glen Stewart in the early games as starting shortstop. Cieslak whose experience goes as high as Wilmington in Class B and Mott, a willing lad from the Georgia-Florida Class D loop, have been splitting the third base assignment. Ty Tyson's .325 average at Trenton keeps him around as Wasdell's replacement.

The outfield is set with Coaker Triplett in left, Buster Adams in center and Ron Northey in right. Nick Goulish, a free agent out of industrial baseball, is the fourth man. With the entire first string held over from last year the Garden appears to be Fitzsimmons strongest department.

Andy Seminick, brought up from Knoxville late in '43, has been doing most of the catching in spring games. Bob Finley and Benny Culp, both part time men last season, complete the department. Dick Barrett, Bill Lee and Lefty Al Gerheauser are the regular hurlers held over from last season. Lee has been late reporting, Barrett has displayed excellent spring form and Gerheauser is counted on heavily.

Hurling Prospects

Schanz who was drafted from San Diego where he won 17, figures to take a regular turn along with Ken Raffensberger, back from another trial after winning 19 for Los Angeles. Roger McKee, a 17-year-old North Carolina schoolboy who won his only Phil start in '43, and Dale Matthewson are expected to show improvement with added experience. Donahue from Utica of the Eastern league has impressed as has Moose Fralick, a free agent.

Julius Homokay, Giant righthander from Utica, Wilbur Reeser, from Trenton and Al Verdel and Bernie Mussill, Army dischargees, are the other candidates.

Manager Fitzsimmons and his two coaches, Catcher Merv Shea and outfielder Chuck Klein, are on the active list ready for whatever may develop.

Emmitsburg

Emmitsburg—Mrs. Harry Boyle, chairman of the blood donors' committee, announces that the Baltimore unit of the Red Cross will be at Mount Saint Mary's college on Monday, April 17, to meet all those of this community who desire to give blood for the men in the armed forces of our country. Transportation will be provided those from town who will meet at the square at 10:45 a. m. in order to arrive at the college at 11 a. m. at which time the local group will be accepted. Men and women between the ages of twenty-one and fifty-nine, inclusive, are eligible to give their blood. No food should be taken after 7 a. m. of that day. Mrs. Boyle states that the demand for blood is urgent and anyone who can possibly give blood at this time will please phone Emmitsburg 19 or 89.

Geroge Wilhide, general chairman of the Red Cross committee for this community, reports the sum of $1,770.93 contributed by the residents of the Emmitsburg district during the recent drive for funds. The quota was $1,100. The outstanding group contributions included students of the Emmitsburg high and elementary schools, $58.61; the Lutheran Sunday school, $31; and through the outstanding efforts of Sue Stinson and Nancy Beegle the sum of $20 was raised by selling home prepared foods to neighbors and by special entertainments by them for the children of the community. Sue and Nancy are the daughters of Dr. and Mrs. Stinson and Dr. and Mrs. Beegle, respectively.

Lieut. Warner W. Boyle has been transferred from San Francisco California, to 1217 Arratt street Philadelphia. He is the son of Mr and Mrs. Harry Boyle, 426 East Main street.

Pvt. John W. Krom, recently inducted, is located at Camp Parkeley Texas. Mrs. Krom with their son Johnny, will continue to reside at their residence, 510 West Main street

Just Folks

By Edgar A. Guest

THE JOYOUS LIFE

Men make of life a mystery, as if must magic rule,
But men and women live it through,
with home and church and school.
And men and women, rich or poor, or humble folk or great,
Must find their happiness themselves, and work for it and wait.
For none to endless peace is born or given a guarantee
That life, for him, from birth to death, will always happy be.

"My yoke is heavy!" so He said who viewed the world aright;
For pride lies in the heavy task and never in the light,
And joy is in the peaceful home and knowledge in the school.
There's beauty in the hills and fields and every rippling pool,
And faith is in the churches small,
as in cathedrals vast,
For out of these contentment comes from first unto the last.

Since man to reason first began, for all he has enjoyed
Of ease and comfort and delight his strength has been employed.
He had to earn the better way with weariness and pain,
Be beaten back and suffer loss, but wake to try again.
And this, since then until today,
has seemed to be the rule—
The joyous life must be a blend of home and church and school.

NURSE'S UNIFORM

Prouder dress no woman wears,
Whatsoever be her station;
Simple though it is, it bears
Pride of glorious occupation.
Silk must fall where it is thrown,
Fashion fawn on idle beauty,
Nurse, to wear that dress you own
Symbolizes love of duty.

There's no other dress that stands
For so much of brave endeavor;
Ministry of gentle hands;
Skill devoted, patient, clever.
Kings buy dresses for their queens,
Rich men robe their dames in satin!
Nurse, your shoulder linen means
It was bought on terms, in Latin.

Gowns are made to catch the eye.
Fortune's symbol many a wrap is,
But there's nothing gold can buy
Lovelier than a nurse's cap is.
Charmers dance in silk at night,
Tawdry stuff, and all may share it!
Proud, that uniform of white!
Just the bravest few may wear it.

TOO OLD

If over twenty-eight, they say:
"Too old to fly!
'Tis only boys, by night and day,
Can ride the sky."

And if at thirty-eight you ask
For service bold,
They answer: "For war's fighting task
You've grown too old!"

Age to the smiling optimist
Is of the will.
Who fancies Time he can resist,
Is youthful still.

But if you'd heed your country's call,
It now appears,
Age is a matter, after all,
Merely of years.

Waste not your words in making known
That still you're spry!
Past fifty, they'll insist you've grown

PURPOSE

Solid front and single plan!
Purpose one and only one!
Fight the war through, every man!
Get it over, get it won!

THE RED CROSS

The mercy that will reach him first,
The water that will quench his thirst;
Assistance, wheresoe'er he goes,
Is what each Red Cross gift bestows.

THE ETERNAL TRIANGLE

I doubt that we shall ever see
Sailors and soldiers here agree
Or both, in these strife-troubled scenes,
Bestowing praise on the Marines.

Flashes Of Life

BELATED HONOR

Boise, Idaho (AP)—James O. Newcomb, 64, has just been advised by the Army that he has been awarded the Purple Heart—for wounds suffered in the battle of San Juan Hill, Cuba, July 1, 1898.

DUMB BUNNY?

Kenilworth, Ill. (AP)—James Cleary, Jr., 14, and his brother, Michael, 7, discovered what they thought an apparent amphibious accident of the Easter bunny along Lake Michigan's shore.

Easter Sunday morning they found hundreds of eggs bobbing in the lake and scattered over more than a block of the lake front. By using long poles, they fished more than 50 of them ashore.

EMU LAYS AN EGG

Buffalo (AP)—Mayor Joseph J. Kelly demands big game when he goes Easter egg hunting.

He prowled the bird house at the zoo for an hour yesterday, having been told the Australian emu was about to hatch an egg—but the emu didn't oblige. "At least, if it did, I didn't see it," he said regretfully.

SCRAP APPEAL

Williamsport, Pa., (AP)—City council turned down an appeal of a junk dealer, self-styled "victim of these community scrap drives," for a municipal loan to buy a horse—but personally contributed $5 toward a fund to get added horsepower in the man's failing business.

OUCH!

Lawrence, Mass. (AP)—Lt. Rosaire Dubrule, 27, AAA pilot, returned without a scratch from year in Pacific with Air Medal and Oak Leaf Cluster after 46 combat missions. Now he is under a doctor's care because of a fractured ankle suffered while skiing at North Conway, New Hampshire.

TOO LITTLE, TOO LATE?

Pocatello, Idaho (AP)—Those size 15EE shoes needed by Marine Pfc. Lawrence I. Hanson, of Rigby, Idaho, have been found. But how to get them to Hanson in the Pacific is a postal problem.

A recent dispatch said Hanson had been going barefoot part of the time to save his last pair of extra-size shoes.

Sgt. Wallace Hanson (no relation) got busy and found the large pair in a store here. Postal clerks, however, said the footwear weighed too much for overseas delivery. So special permission is being sought.

NO GLASSES NEEDED

Tucson, Ariz. (AP)—John E. Lindley, past his 100th birthday, is through with glasses. He used them until he was 90, then cast them aside because he couldn't get a pair to fit.

Now he reads daily the small print of his Bible without so much as a squint.

POINTLESS

Springfield, Ill. (AP)—Mrs. Eleanor Martin had a fire in her home—it did no damage—but that wasn't what bothered her.

"My ham burned to a crisp in the oven," she told firemen. "And it took the very last of my ration points!"

ODETTE LEARNS

State College, Pa. (AP)—Miss Odette Hector, Costa Rican student of dairy manufacturing at Pennsylvania State college, picked up some first-hand knowledge of dairy products during her first week here.

While picking up enough English to order at restaurants, she lived on ice cream and cake.

NOTHING FOR THE BRIDE

Des Moines (AP)—The state board of social welfare has advised a 70-year-old woman it can't send out the state's money as wedding presents.

The woman wrote the board saying she was leaving the assistance rolls because she was being married, but wanted the board to send her one more check as a marriage gift.

SUNDAY COMES MONDAY

Chicago (AP)—Dickie Micelli's young cat "Sunday" got himself up a tree Saturday. He wouldn't come down until Monday and then only after an anti-cruelty society squad had enticed him.

Three-year-old Dickie, who said "my cat was bad," gave him a heaping dish of milk for "punishment."

UNLUCKY FIND

New York (AP)—A depositor found $500 on the floor of a bank, returned it to the owner and received a $50 reward.

He figured a celebration was in order.

The festivities were barely over when he found himself in jail—charged with assault, dangerous driving, driving whole intoxicated and passing a red light.

And there was nothing left of the $50.

QUICK FIT

Philadelphia (AP)—Eight prospective brides had a fast fitting at a dress shop yesterday.

The girls were trying on their bridal gowns when smoke began pouring into the shop from a fire in the basement.

By the time firemen arrived the young women had changed into street clothes and fled to safety.

Letters To The Editor

SOMEWHERE IN ENGLAND

Dear Sir:

I am writing again to thank you for sending me the Servicemens Edition of the Gettysburg Times. The papers were transferred to me from Lido Beach, N. Y. When I received them I just had to sit down and read them right away to find out what was going on around Gettysburg. The paper is just like a letter from home to me.

The last letter I wrote to you back in the states sure did come out right because I mentioned something about Chicago, Philadelphia and New York and the next city would probably be London. So it was, I never thought I would get to see it but I did. I hope someday I will meet some of the boys over here.

I read in the paper something about the American Red Cross fund Adams County had to raise. I hope you reached the goal because the American Red Cross is doing everything it possibly can for the boys over here in England. Also before leaving the States they did a big job to help us.

They make the boys feel right at home over here by having entertainments and lots of other things too numerous to mention. You know everything they do for us has to be backed up by someone. I know the people of Adams County will reach their goal and even go over it because they always have so far.

The American Red Cross needs your help to help us so don't let them down. We will try out best not to let you down. We will keep fighting and we will win this war. I will say goodbye now and the next time I pick up a Gettysburg Times newspaper I will probably see that Adams County went way over the top in it's Red Cross drive. Lots of luck.

A Faithful Reader.
S 2/C Joseph Bosak,
c/o New York, N. Y.

Dear Sir:

While reading a late issue of the Times I decided the least I could do was to drop you a few lines to show my appreciation for what you are doing for the boys. Although the Times is not mailed directly to me, I never miss an issue, because one of my shipmates, who hails from Biglerville passes his on to me. By the time Slaybaugh and I are through with the paper it is pretty well worn. Especially the sport page.

We've followed the Maroon's basketball games pretty close up to the last Chambersburg game, rooting for the fellows to take the S. Penna. conference again. Then we went to sea and had to wait a month or two for the paper. When we hit port again the paper was waiting for us, but the results of the game were a little disappointing. But by the writeup it must of been a swell game.

Well, I'll close for now, since news is scarce out here. Thanks again for the paper.

Sincerely
S 1/C E. D. Raver,
c/o San Francisco, Calif.

Dear Sir:

Raver, a shipmate of mine, and I just finished reading the faithful Gettysburg Times. He, as well as myself, really enjoy the home town paper a great deal. At the present time he and I are trying to catch up on our letter writing. Due to being at sea a great deal of time we got behind on our letter writing. Please excuse my delay in writing to you.

Raver, a graduate from Gettysburg high, and myself a graduate from Biglerville high, get a great deal of pleasure out of following the sports of our alma-mater.

There is very little that I can write about outside that we have seen action. I suppose by the time I land at Gettysburg again I will be able to tell a great deal of experiences. Due to censorship I cannot say much about it now. I must soon bring this mass of lines to a close. I say again thanks for the paper.

A faithful reader,
S 1/C Donald E. Slaybaugh
c/o San Francisco, Calif.

Dear Sir:

I am writing this to let you know of a change in my address. I will also take this opportunity to let you know, and all the Times employes, how much I appreciate your efforts and generosity in sending me the Times free of charge.

To me, with exception of letters from home it is the most important piece of mail I receive. It is a fine example of the desire of the people at home to do their utmost to make the men in the service feel as close to home as they can.

Please accept my thanks.
Respectfully,
Sgt. Earl Lingg
Co. D, 46th TB. Apo 263
Camp Bowie
Brownwood, Texas.

Dear Sir:

I wish to notify you of my change of address. I am still at the same base, but I have a new mailing address. I would like you to know how much I appreciate your paper. I enjoy reading about friends I knew in civilian life and of friends who are now in the different branches of the Armed forces.

Your paper gives us a chance to find out where our buddies are and how they are getting along. We boys in the service like to know how you folks back home are doing also.

In closing I would like to say, I think the "Gettysburg Times" is one of the best moral builders I have.

Respectfully yours,
Cpl. John Lawver,
261st AAF Base Unit
(CCTS) (F) Section "M"
Army Air Base
Abilene, Texas.

HERE AND THERE

Early in 1918 a young Philadelphia high school student, flirting with his nineteenth birthday still in the offing, discarded his books and ran off to war. He joined the Marines, weathered the vigorous basic training program and was soon bundled off across the Atlantic to battle the enemy on French soil. He served under old "Gimlet Eye," General Smedley D. Butler, and fought with the crack 13th Marines. Honorably discharged in September, 1919, he was back where he started from, a matured high school boy in Philadelphia. But Richard "Dick" Bircher did not float along on his laurels.

RICHARD BIRCHER

After considerable thought "Dick" Bircher decided to study refrigeration engineering. He got more than a smattering of that science and then entered Temple university night school where he completed his education in commercial law and business administration. He then entered the refrigeration business and his flare for organization and business acumen soon moved him to the front in that effort.

However, back in his mind he nursed a hankering to delve into aviation. He had seen several dog-fights over the trenches in France and he marveled at the pilots who piloted those "crates." In 1928 he started his flying career and in 1933 entered the commercial aviation field, founding the Boulevard Airport.

For three years he devoted most of his time to exhibition flying, acrobatics that thrilled crowds throughout the east. He soared far and wide. Soon he conceived of a gigantic flying force for this country, with thousands of fully trained pilots, flying modern ships at tremendous speeds.

His experience and background qualified him as an instructor in acrobatic flying and he started instructing civilians in the art of flying. Boulevard Airport became widely known and young fliers were receiving valuable instruction that soon would serve them in good stead.

Then came Pearl Harbor, followed by an Army order banning commercial flying and civilian instruction over a wide area along the Atlantic seaboard.

Undaunted and still firm in his belief that the Army would need thousands of pilots, "Dick" Bircher closed his school and scoured Pennsylvania and Maryland for a new and suitable site. After more than three months of searching he finally selected Gettysburg as the ideal area for training young Americans in the art of flying. He purchased a large farm on the Mummasburg road, cleared a few minor hazards, erected a hangar and machine shop and set up in business again under the Civilian Pilot Training program.

Everything was going well when the Army Air Forces decided on an expanded program of training young men for the Air Corps.

Because of his splendid reputation in the aviation game and his long experience in training fliers "Dick" Bircher's airport was one of the first selected to train men for the Army Air Forces. Academic instruction became available at Gettysburg college and flight training continued at Bircher's Gettysburg School of Aeronautics.

The program was moving along under an accelerated tempo. More than 100 prospective pilots were being turned out here each month. Many of the boys trained here were wearing wings and the coveted shoulder bars.

Then the AAF decided that it had sufficient pilots . . . that its facilities were adequate to conduct their own program in the future. The order to close during June was a severe blow.

Civilian instruction of prospective Air Corps pilots, navigators and bombardiers is in its last stage. Soon the program will end. The Gettysburg School of Aeronautics will be out of business. "Dick" Bircher faces another decision.

But "Dick" Bircher is not one who easily admits defeat. He realizes that his airport will be without income during the war. He appreciates that civilian flying is taboo until Victory. But he refuses to quit. He knows, as many of us do, that his airport is serving a definite purpose. He recalls at least ten instances where Army and Navy pilots, lost in fog, or running low on gas, found haven at the Gettysburg Airport. He has saved many thousands of dollars worth of planes, equipment and precious lives.

"I'm going to keep the airport open. There'll be no money coming in but if I can make available one landing spot for some lost flier I'll be happy . . . and this I propose to do so long as this war lasts.

"I propose to maintain an airport at Gettysburg, because I not only like Gettysburg and the good citizens here, but I realize that this is an area that needs an airport. After the war we'll develop our program and unless we encounter some unforeseen obstacles we'll put and keep Gettysburg on the air map.

"I'm a firm believer in the future of aviation and I don't want Gettysburg to be left in the cold," is the way "Dick" Bircher expresses it.

"Dick" Bircher backs up his flying enthusiasm. He is licensed to fly anything from "0" horsepower to 450 HP. He is licensed to fly land or sea planes and autogiros. He is certified to instruct in those planes in primary, secondary and cross-country courses.

He is a member of the Private Pilots' Association of America, Sportsmen's Pilots' Association which he helped to found in 1933, the Pylon club, the Quiet Birdmen and the National Aeronautical Association.

Richard Bircher was born in Philadelphia in 1899, a son of the late Sara (Knight) Bircher and John Edwin Bircher. His father, who will observe his 90th birthday in November, makes his home with his son, on the fringe of the Gettysburg Airport.

Four score and seven years ago Tuesday The First National Bank of Gettysburg was born. It was originally established as the Farmers and Merchants Savings Institution of Adams County. Seven years later, on March 11, 1864, it became The First National Bank of Gettysburg, the first county banking institution to receive a national charter.

Born of humble means "For the security of its depositors," according to its first newspaper display advertisement announcing its opening, it has grown and thrived with the progress and growth of the community it serves. From resources of a few hundred thousand, it now approaches totals of near four millions.

In swaddling clothes it shared a two and one-half story brick structure with John Minnick's ice cream parlor and George Arnold's store in the southwest corner of the "public square." In 1932 it acquired The Citizens Trust Company.

Today, in the full-bloom of manhood and at the ripe old age of 87 years, it shares its own three story, white stone edifice with a tire shop, legal offices ,dental parlors, apartments, state store and Selective Service offices. It also is generally referred to as "The Bank With The Chime Clock."

While the officers, directors, shareholders and employes are quietly, but proudly, observing the bank's eighty-seventh birthday, they also point with pardonable pride to the record service of their vice-president and trust officer, J. E. Musselman, who only a few days ago observed a milestone of sixty years of continuous service with The First National . . . the oldest active Adams county banker . . . who observed his 82nd birthday less than two weeks ago. Incidentally Mr. Musselman started as clerk and janitor.

Another pleasant birthday reminder Tues. for The First National came from Penrose Myers who happily recalled that last month he rounded out sixty-eight years as a customer, the oldest of known record in the county.

Six Presidents have served The First National during its lifetime.

George Throne was the first President of the institution. George Arnold was the first treasurer and secretary. The first board of directors included:

Samuel Durboraw, A. Heintzelman, D. McCreary, William Culp, Robert Horner, John Horner, George Arnold, D. McConaughy, John Mickley and John Throne.

David G. Minter was the second President, Samuel M. Bushman was the third, C. H. Musselman the fourth and Edwin C. Tyson the fifth President. Edmund W. Thomas, present President, assumed that position in 1928.

Fifty years after The First National first saw the light of day it constructed its present large modern building. At that time it was thought that its banking rooms would be adequate for its rapidly expanding business . . . but this has not held true. Present plans call for an enlargement of facilities as soon as war priorities are lifted on war-needed equipment and manpower. Like other business endeavors it is bowing to the inevitable . . . win the war first, even to the extent of employing women to fill gaps in its roster in deference to the armed services. The present staff consists of 16 employes.

It is fortunate for a community, state and nation that banks and other enterprises are not mortals . . . their passing, after a normal span of years, would retard the growth and prosperity of each generation.

And that is why, on this pleasant occasion, we feel privileged to add our few words of congratulation and well wishes to The First National for a grand job, well done and our hopes for many more years of service to a grand community.

CHURCH FILLED FOR GOOD FRIDAY UNION SERVICE

The Presbyterian church was filled for the union Good Friday service which was conducted at 2 o'clock by the pastor, the Rev. Robert M. Hunt, with the Rev. Dr. A. W. Bloomfield, stated clerk of the Presbytery of Cleveland, delivering the sermon.

Using as his text Christ's declaration, "If any man will come after me, let him take up his cross and follow me," Doctor Bloomfield spoke on the theme, "The Cross Leads."

"Men and women can never make anything better than it is in this world without spending life itself—without burning out their lives in hoping, dreaming, planning, striving, thinking—each carrying his own cross.

"Sometimes about the hardest cross we may have to bear is to give up our own way for God's way," he continued.

To Preach Here Sunday

Citing then the lives of great men and women of recent years "who have been driven on to new discoveries, new inventions, new achievements," Doctor Bloomfield observed that the way of the cross "is the way up, for men carry their crosses upward and lead men upward. Always the Cross of Christ is ahead and beyond that a great vision.

"If you pick up your cross and follow Jesus, you will not be alone but you will be one of millions following in that procession. The Cross of Jesus had its beginning on the road to Golgotha but it did not stop there—it went on to Easter, on to the road to Emaus, to Galillee, to the upper room and on to completion through the ages."

Friday's service opened with a half hour of appropriate organ music by Mrs. S. F. Snyder, the church organist, and early in the service A-S William F. Cryer, of the 55th College Training Detachment, sang "Were You There When They Crucified My Lord?" by Burleigh. The scripture reading and prayer were by the Rev. R. M. TO REORGANIZE DISASTER GROUP

A reorganization of the disaster relief committte of the Adams county Red Cross was outlined Monday evening at a meeting of Disaster Relief Chairman Glenn L. Bream, and local Red Cross Secretary Miss Margaret McMillan with Miss Helen J. Moses, disaster field representative, Eastern area, of the American Red Cross. The meeting was held at the Hotel Gettysburg.

Because many of the men and women who were originally members of the committee have since left town or have died and in order to set up a committee similar to those in all other of the 3,740 Red Cross chapters in the U. S. it was decided to complete the reorganization within the next two weeks. After the reorganization Miss Moses will meet with the new sub-chairmen to go over the duties of each.

Sub-chairmen listed in the proposed plan for reorganization include: survey, rescues, medical aid, food, clothing, transportation and communications, registration and information, fund raising and public information and central purchase and supply. Because of the small size of the county, it was decided to merge a number of the committees under one sub-chairman in the county reorganization.

It was also decided to organize a general planning committee comprising civilian defense officials, the burgess, a representative of the American Legion and a business man to meet with Chairman Bream.

The doctors' association was asked to advise the woman's club which nurse would wish to take the course.

Abandon Curfew Plan

Mrs. Thomas L. Cline, chairman of a committee to determine the feasibility of establishing a curfew in Gettysburg reported that under present conditions it was felt there would be little value in having a curfew here.

Mrs. Carl Oyler, rummage sale chairman, reported $80 had been made from the recent rummage sale and that the money had been turned over to the Red Cross as the club's donation during the Red Cross War Relief Campaign. The rummage sale committee was enlarged and it was announced that another sale will be held April 21 and 22 with Mrs. Oyler as chairman. Other members of the committee include: Mrs. F. K. "Y" Campaign Nets More Than $2,100

Instruct Teachers In Reading Methods

Three reading demonstrations have been held in Adams county schools this week under the direction of Miss Dorothy M. Warner, supervisor of special education in the county.

Wednesday afternoon Miss Barbara Cronk demonstrated reading techniques at the New Oxford schools for teachers of McSherrystown, New Oxford, and Conewago, Berwick, Hamilton, Straban and Mt. Pleasant townships. Miss Cronk held a similar demonstration Wednesday morning at Littlestown for the teachers of that borough. COMMISSIONERS NAME INTERIM TAX COLLECTOR

The Adams county commissioners ran into the "labor shortage" Wednesday and pressed County Treasurer John W. Brehm into service as a tax collector until someone can be found to take the job in Berwick township.

The post of tax collector, left vacant by the resignation of Charles Brothers, pays less than $100 a year and no one seems to wish the job. To fill the interim until someone accepts the post the commissioners announced that the county treasurer will collect county taxes for Berwick for the time being. The Berwick township school board in the meantime is continuing its practice of hiring a professional tax collecting agency to secure its taxes. Mr. Brothers, however, must still collect all taxes outstanding prior to 1944 back to the beginning of his term despite his resignation, the commissioners point out.

Assessors' Pay

At the same time the commissioners put assessors on a new basis for payment by taking advantage of a new law which permits the establishment of assessor's time sheets. The new sheets printed for each assessor in the county are to be submitted each month to the board of assessment and revision of taxes "on or before the tenth day of each month succeeding any month in which they have been employed one or more days in performing their duties." The monthly statement must "be accompanied by a sworn statement of the days employed, the particular days and the nature of the duties performed on each day."

The time sheet contains space for date, number of hours worked, and nature of duties for 31 days. Previously the assessors at the end of each assessment period swore to the amount of work they had done and were paid on that basis. It was believed that the new system would produce better results for both the county and the assessors.

Previously, relying on memory for the amount of time worked, many assessors may have "cheated themselves somewhat in listing the amount of work they have done," it was stated.

To Aid Gardeners

Professor Herbert G. Hamme was named as Gettysburg chairman, Wednesday.

The work of the chairmen this year will not be so much to promote new gardens as to assist gardeners in getting the most out of the present gardens, it was explained. Literature on how to prepare and care for a garden have been distributed to the chairmen for further distribution to gardeners.

At New Oxford plans are underway to hold a flower and garden show during the week of August 24. Mrs. J. E. C. Miller is chairman and Mrs. R. E. Hemminger, co-chairman, of the flower show committee. In addition to promoting the Victory gardens the New Oxford club is also planning to tend flower urns in center square at New Oxford.

Pamphlets Available On Corn Borer Control

The Adams county Extension office was planning today to send out nearly 2,000 copies of a pamphlet entitled "The European corn borer is in your corn."

The booklet, containing pictures of what to do about the borer, stated that all fields must be cleaned of all standing corn prior to May 1 in the drive to destroy the pest which made tremendous headway in Adams county last year and is expected to be trebly dangerous this year if sufficient steps are not taken before May 1 to destroy the grub of the borer.

TALKS ON LEE AT APPOMATTOX DAY FETE HERE

"If the fortunes of Lee's army of Northern Virginia during the first two years of war were upward, with its climax at Gettysburg, then the fortunes of Lee's army after Gettysburg were clearly downward, culminating at Appomattox," Dr. Frederick Tilberg, historian at the Gettysburg National Park, told 41 members of the Gettysburg camp of the Sons of Union Veterans and auxiliary organizations at the first annual Appomattox day dinner held by the local group at Mrs. Smith's restaurant, Wednesday night.

"Lee's final effort to break through the Union line July 3 at Gettysburg cost him irreparable losses in manpower and supplies and Lee must have foreseen, after Gettysburg, an Appomattox," Dr. Tilberg said.

Grant vs. Lee

Doctor Tilberg then told of Grant's campaign against Lee beginning at the Wilderness and Spotsylvania Courthouse in May and June 1864 and then by successive flanking movements reached the area southeast of Richmond where the Union army suffered heavy losses at Cold Harbor. Then Lee withdrew into the fortifications of Richmond and Petersburg where Grant by gradually extending his line south of Petersburg extended Lee's line to the breaking point at Five Forks, Dr. Tilberg said.

Lee, observing his communications with the south being cut off, abandoned Richmond and Petersburg and started westward in order to meet Gen. Joseph E. Johnston's Confederate army which was being driven northward by General Sherman. Lee was cut off at Appomattox Court House and after a last attempt to break through on the morning of April 9 he accepted Grant's offer of terms of surrender, the speaker said.

Department Commander Jesse E. Snyder was toastmaster for the program which opened with the singing of "America" and the "pledge of allegiance to the flag." For those receiving government checks the Secret Service asks that these precautions be taken:

"1. Have some member of the family at home when the checks are due to be delivered.

"2. Be sure your name is printed clearly on the mail box.

"3. Try to cash your checks in the same place each month. This will make identification easier. Merchants are being cautioned to ask identification.

"4. Do not endorse your check until you are in the presence of the person you will ask to cash it."

To Merchants

Merchants and others who cash these checks are urged to take these precautions:

"1. When a stranger asks you to cash a check, insist that he properly identify himself as the rightful payee of that check.

"2. Before you accept any check, ask yourself this question: If this check is returned because of a forged endorsement, can I locate the forger and recover my loss?
